

270 attend Red Cross blood clinic

Red Cross officials reported 270 donors attended the blood clinic Monday, May 19, and donated 259 units of blood.

This clinic was sponsored by the Georgetown Kinsmen Club and their help with distribution of posters, setting up the clinic, loading equipment and general assistance at the clinic is appreciated.

Thanks to Dr. Ashenhurst who was on call, volunteers, staff, nursery help and drivers, the clergy, John Ollivier of Halton Cable Systems, Halton Hills Hydro for displaying promotional banners, Dairy Queen for donation of juice and cups, Pizza Hut for tea and serviettes, Miracle Mart for coffee, Loblaw's for donuts, Mr. L. Ferguson of Mac's Milk and Coco-Cola Ltd. for soft drinks, C.W.L. for kitchen help and Mr. C. Domingos for use of Holy Cross Auditorium.

Special thanks to Mahrukh Bapooji and her telephone committee, to Shirley Chaplin for publicity and promotion and to Noreen Mieh and Betty Baker, conveners of this clinic.

Clinic organizers would like to thank all people who took time out to give the gift of life.
