Executive meets Monday

Last week we gave you the names of the 10 members who were elected to your new 1994-1995 executive. These members ably assisted by our Past President will be responsible for the running of the branch for the next 12 months.

The first scheduled meeting for your executive will be Monday, May 30th. If you have something you feel should be considered for the betterment of this branch let your executive know so it can be investigated and evaluated for presentation to the membership.

There were three tables of bridge on Wednesday and 13 1/2 tables of euchre on Thursday. The winners were Lil Howson, Len Lovell, and Dot Norton for bridge. And Helen Cummings, Murray MacKinley, Buzzy, Doreen Barfoot, Edythe Clements, and Everett VanNorman for euchre.

Winners at the Saturday afternoon meat draw were: Annamaria Lowin, (She took home the bacon), Ed Molody (2), Andy Peckham, Coline Dunlop, Barb Andrews, Carl Fisher (2), Jim Hayes, Merle Dear, Mary Underhill, Dave Thompson, Ab Irwin, H. Kidd and some guy named Shawn took home the big prize.

Coming Events: Bridge, Euchre, and the Meat Draw on Wed., Thurs., and Sat. afternoons.

You should keep in mind that Sunday, June 5 is Decoration Day and help will be needed ahead of time and on Sunday to place crosses and plant flowers.

Parading in Massachusetts

Quite a few members will be heading for Plymouth, Massachusetts for our annual visit and parade on May 28. Also your president and some officers will be heading for the Legion Convention, held at Calgary starting May 29.

Location maps for the fishing derby on June 12 will be available at the bar. Contact Doris Bouley for further details. Also on June 12 we will be playing golf at Calerin.

Volunteers are still needed on June 11 to set up for our annual school's track and field day at Georgetown District High School.

The next General Meeting will be held on June 9 at which time your newly elected executive will be responsible for branch functions for the 1994-1995 season.
