Meteor fit to be tied

Last Sunday, (May 29), in Hamilton's astro turf ed Ivor Wynne Stadium, Celtic defeated Aberdeen for the Hamilton Scottish Festival Cup. Thus ended a week to ten days of soccer feasting for fans, particularly Scots fans.

The game itself was a fairly drab affair with the one good goal to lighten up the play. The teams were not fully staffed with first team squad players. Indeed, Aberdeen sported two Montreal Impact players in their line up. The windy conditions, together with the unfamiliarity of astro turf underfoot, gave the players - used to real grass - problems with control and strength of passing and shooting. Nevertheless the game was very entertaining, and more so due to the almost complete Celtic support.

Dan Dunleavy is a Georgetown raised soccer player. He came through the house league system into the competitive field with Falcons and blossomed into a useful defender/attacker under the tutelage of George Baines and Dave Maloney. Currently Dan is serving an apprenticeship of a sort with the Fan Radio, 1430 am. He is a news and weather reporter. This summer Dan will be involved in reporting on the World Cup and carrying out some interviewing. He began his radio work in Orangeville before recently joining his new station.

Local teams had mixed fortunes in the Inter County last week. Meteor tied Eagles 4-4, the visitor's second successive match with the same scoreline! Falcons lost their second in succession by 1-3 to visiting Meadowvale, a strong and capable side from all accounts. Falcons could not find the penetration required to beat an organized defence, although coming close a couple times. Blazers fought the good fight in Caledon to earn a tied result, 1-1, Merseyside came to meet the Mariners and the usual verbal display from Mersey was soon in evidence. Mersey were kitted out in a motley array of shirts which was a little offputting. Mariners took the lead, Mersey equalized and took the lead before Mariners drew level near the end. A draw was a fair result it seems and both teams had the discipline cards shown. The often red-carded Dave McLaughlin, Mersey, was once again ejected and newcomer Kevin Galloway, Mariners was cautioned for a retaliatory challenge.

Ajax were overwhelmed by Lions to the tune of 2-7. Milton and Villa had a fair tussle with Milton coming out on top by the odd goal in three. United lost 3-5 at Britannia (the former Stingers) which is a bit of a surprise based on last year's results. PRPA (police team) and Winchester had a real battle on each other's hands (and feet) is the main report of the 4-2 win for the Arms team.

On Wednesday evening Ajax met Villa at Alcott followed by the Eagles/Falcons contest. Blazers hosted Mariners at Cedarvale at and United hosted Winchester at Meadowglen. Meteor traveled to Caledon and Milton headed to Britannia.

Local ladies squads square off

Hometown soccer rivals, Georgetown's Ladies I and II faced each other at Meadowglen on May 30th for a well fought, equalized match that resulted in a 2-2 decision.

Georgetown II started off strong in the first half, when a play within the first fifteen minutes, had Joanna Miller positioned to shoot the ball long, high and directly into the top left corner pocket of the net from the 18 yard box.

After a period of consecutive false throw-ins, Georgetown I was able to get on track and score their first minutes later in a face-to-face challenge.

Goalkeeper Michelle Stapleton came out of net to face the Georgetown I attacker, when the ball was kicked high, hit the crossbar, knocked back out into play and finally pushed into net to end the half.

A well played second half was to follow. Both Georgetown teams constantly fought to control the ball passing up and down the field. But, it was Georgetown I who was first to score when a tussle in front of the net resulted in the ball being kicked over the defending goalkeeper, making the score 2-1 for Georgetown I.

Not to be outdone, Georgetown II retaliated minutes later when, on a superb pass from Darla Gillespie, attacker Joanna Miller dropped her second of the evening into the net to tie the match 2-2.
