Elston at Liberal fundraiser

Ontario Opposition House Leader, Murrury Elston, will be speak on Liberals in Action, this Wednesday, June 15, at the North Halton Golf Club.

The evening is part of a four-event fundraising effort by the Halton North Provincial Liberal Association. Four prominent Liberal MPPs, including Elston, are being invited to different areas of the riding, to give people the opportunity to hear about Liberal alternatives, and to make suggestions.

The first will feature Sean Conway, Opposition Deputy Leader, who will speak on Crime in Ontario, at the Harrop House, 345 Steeles Ave., Milton, on Tuesday, June 14.

The second will be Elston, who will talk about Liberals in Action, on Wednesday at the North Halton

MURRAY ELSTON

Golf Club.

Charles Beer will speak on Educational Change, and Steve Mahoney, on Job Creation and Small Business, on dates to be arranged in the fall of 1994 in Nassagaweya and Acton.

At these events people will also have an opportunity to talk with Walt Elliot, Liberal candidate for the next provincial election, and Liberal MPP for Halton North from 1987 to 1990.

All events will start with an informal reception and refreshments at 7 p.m., and keynote speaker at 8 p.m.

The cost of admission is $50 per event, or $100 for all four events. Tickets should be purchased in advance.

For more information or to purchase tickets, please call 876-3377 or 877-3753.

Public meeting

A public meeting was held Monday night to discuss a proposed amendment to the zoning bylaw to permit a lawn care business to operate at 121 Confederation St. in Glen Williams.

There were few concerns raised by the public, although one area resident had some questions about the lawn chemicals and pesticides stored in a building on the property.

Council will deal with the proposed amendment at an upcoming meeting.
