

Acton Lions support the library

Acton Lions Club has donated $2,000 to the purchase of a text reader for Acton branch of Halton Hills Libraries. The text reader will allow people with sight disabilities the opportunity to read books by having them scanned. On hand for the presentation were (seated) Donald Anderson and Roger Moore, and (standing) Mike Albano of Acton Lions and Geoff Cannon of Halton Hills Library. Donald and Geoff will be working on a training program for library users, which will be available to the public by fall.
