

A Classic Sunday

The 7th Annual Classics Against Cancer Auto Show motors on at Cedarvale Park in Georgetown today (Sunday), June 19.

Whether you are a vintage car of muscle car enthusiast, the Classics Against Cancer Auto Show is sure to please. Visitors will see more than 300 rare and beautiful cars which will be on display from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

For just $5 per adult, you can enjoy the cars and live entertainment, headlined by Men Without Hairs, one of Canada's top musical comedy team. The children's corner allows little ones to have their faces painted, laugh with colorful clowns and enjoy their own entertainment for free.

This event is organized by a committee of volunteers who ensure that all of the profits raised go directly to the Canadian Cancer Society. Last year's show, although dampened by rain, raised over $10,000 for a total of $76,000 since the first event in 1988.

Local businesses can give their support to the event by making cash contributions or donating merchandise or services. National companies like Valvoline Canada Ltd., UAP/NAPA Auto Parts, Allied Signal Automotive and 1050 CHUM have already donated to this year's event.

Celebrate Father's Day while doing a good deed, raising funds for the Canadian Cancer Society.

A real snowbird!

It's a dream come true for former Georgetown resident, Capt. Dave Deere, who this year was selected for a prized spot on the Canadian Forces Snowbirds team. Deere was a CF-18 pilot who flew in the Persian Gulf War and a former CF-5 air demonstration pilot. Deere who says he has waited for this moment since he was young, can now pass that dream onto this young boy, right. Local residents can watch Deere and his Snowbirds teammates fly at the Hamilton Air Show today, June 19 with more dates throughout North America until mid-October.
