Arts Alive presents unique musical revue Nine Months

Arts Alive is proud to present Nine Months, a one woman musical revue about pregnancy on Wednesday, June 22 at the John Elliott Theatre.

The show stars Elise Dewsberry as three different pregnant women, as well as narrator for the show.

The show was commissioned in 1990 for the Muskoka Festival and first appeared as a one hour cabaret at different locations throughout Ontario.

It was expanded to its current 90-minute length plus intermission in 1993, and has since played to appreciative audiences in Toronto, Hamilton and New York. After visiting Georgetown, the production will continue on a tour of Southern Ontario.

The show was created by a talented team of Canadian writers with many credits and awards. Carl Ritchie, creator of the play, Family Values, to be produced off-Broadway this year, provided the script and song lyrics. Stephen Woodjetts, performer, director and musical director for Stratford Festival's The Mikado provided the musical score, while additional arrangement and accompaniment for the show is performed by Leslie Arden, the Dora-nominated creator of the musical, House of Martin Guerre.

All of this supports the wonderfully talented Elise Dewsberry, director and performer in this hilarious comedy. Elise is known to Georgetown audiences for their direction of The Mikado in May 1993 for Georgetown Globe Productions.

She brings the same finesse and skill displayed in The Mikado to Nine Months, and audiences will embrace her characters with love and laughter.

Tickets for this show are available at Royal LePage Real Estate and the Georgetown Library for $10. For more details, contact 877-5545 or 877-4323.

Elise Dewsberry stars in the one woman musical, Nine Months.

Grand theatre in Fergus

Fergus, famous for one of the largest Scottish Games Festivals in North America is also home to one of Canada's newest summer theatre festivals — The Theatre on the Grand.

Fergus comes alive in the summer when it plays host to more than 15,000 people expected to attend the Theatre on the Grand.

The Theatre on the Grand features the best in comedies and farces from Britain, Canada and the U.S. :

Run for Your Wife — by Ray Cooney, one of the funniest British farces ever. June 29-July 16.

Last of the Red Hot Lovers — one of Neil Simon's best. July 20-August 6.

Look, No Hans! — by Chapman and Pertwee, British farce in the best tradition. August 10-August 27.

P.A.C.T., the parents group at Robert Little School, would like to extend their appreciation to all who assisted in making this year's Spring Carnival such a great success.

In spite of cool winds, the community was out in full force for this 'fundraiser'. The teachers and staff at Robert Little were, as always, supportive and appreciative of P.A.C.T.'s efforts in organizing this community event.

First prize in this year's raffle went to Dennis Mitchell of Acton winning a weekend for two at the Wigamog Inn in Haliburton. Second prize, a GE answering machine went to Maureen Killick of Acton, and third prize, a Little Tikes scooter to Karen Free of Georgetown.

Congratulations to all our lucky winners and participants of Spring Carnival '94 and we look forward to your participation in '95. Many thanks to all the businesses who gave so generously to enhance student growth through the partnership of school & community.
