

Free Admission Day on June 30

CVCA slides into summer programs with slippery snake show

The Awesome Snake Show slithers into Terra Cotta Conservation Area today, June 19, 2 to 4 p.m. "Adults and children will have a chance to see real live non-poisonous snakes up close," said Ian Hendry, interpreter at Terra Cotta. "We'll also provide a slide and puppet show about the often misunderstood snakes of Ontario."

Registration fee for the Awesome Snake Show is $7.50 per person. Bike Tour
On Sunday, June 26, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., novice cyclists will have an opportunity to accompany Theresa Rigg on a leisurely Interpretive Bicycle Tour along the concession roads through the Terra Cotta and Silver Creek

Conservation Areas. "Besides taking part in some pleasant exercise, people will learn about the area's history as we visit the beautiful natural landscapes of the Niagara Escarpment," said Rigg. Registration fee for the Interpretive Bicycle Tour is $7.50 per person.

Free Admission Day
Families should highlight June 30 on their calendars. On that day, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority will offer free admission to Terra Cotta, Belfountain and Orangeville Reservoir Conservation Areas. "Free Admission Day provides an opportunity for parents and children to visit our areas and experience the excellent education and recreational facilities we offer to the public," said Jim Hastings, CVCA's supervisor of field operations. For registration information or further details on each of these events, contact Fran Frampton at (905) 670-1615, ext. 264.

Magician at the library
Come and kick off your holidays and the start of the Library's Summer Reading Club with Owen Anderson's Reading is a Magic Trip. Tickets are now on sale for both shows on July 6, 10:30 a.m. at the Georgetown branch, 2 p.m. at the Acton branch. This all new show will feature lots of fun, audience participation and a live bunny too! Admission is $2 per person. For more information call 873-2681
