

Girls continue battles in Kinsmen ball action

The battles are continuing on the local diamonds.

In Kinsmen girls' senior division softball play, Dunlop Insurance continued its winning ways, trampling Pictures and Presents 27-4. Dunlop homers were hit by Julie Pollock and Julie Bottomley. Both Pollock and Bottomley were named Dunlop game stars, while the P and P honor went to Seema Seth.

The Kinsmen intermediate division standings stayed the same as all three top teams — Dairy Queen, Optimist Club and Elk's Lodge 540 — won again.

Dairy Queen romped easily against Design Builders 28-4.

Hitting Dairy Queen four-baggers were Jackie Bell (two), Jackie Schenk, Meghan McCracken and Cheryl Mastalerz. Games star were Sarah Dougall of Design Builders and the entire Dairy Queen team.

Optimist Club dumped rolled over Halton Commercial Printers 19-11. Game stars were Leanne McGowan, who stole home for Optimist, and the Printers' trio of Adrienne Lambert, Robyn Williams and Shannon Sommerville.

Meanwhile, Elk's Lodge 540 narrowly got by Knechtel's 20-18. Both teams were given game star honors for their sportsmanship and good play.
