Young artist holds first solo show

Tina Newlove, a young Campbellville artist, will have her first solo art show at the Wyget Woods Art Gallery beginning today, July 3.

The show, called Revelation, will demonstrate to visitors her interpretation of life's spiritual and inspirational messages. She draws her mix of abstract and realistic images from the scriptures, scenes around her church, and personal visualizations from her own life experiences.

Tina has completed two years towards her Honors BA in Fine Art from McMaster University in Hamilton. She is enjoying the challenge of exploring a variety of media under the direction of her professors.

Prior to university, Tina studied under the late Stephen Warren of Nassagaweya, where she learned the fine detail of drawing and shading.

Her growth in the use of watercolor as a medium was fostered by Gretchen Day, her private instructor from Georgetown.

All of these influences are simply building on what appears to be a natural talent that Tina has demonstrated since childhood.

"The first pieces I remember were horses that I drew from the unusual angle of the tail forward," reminisces Tina.

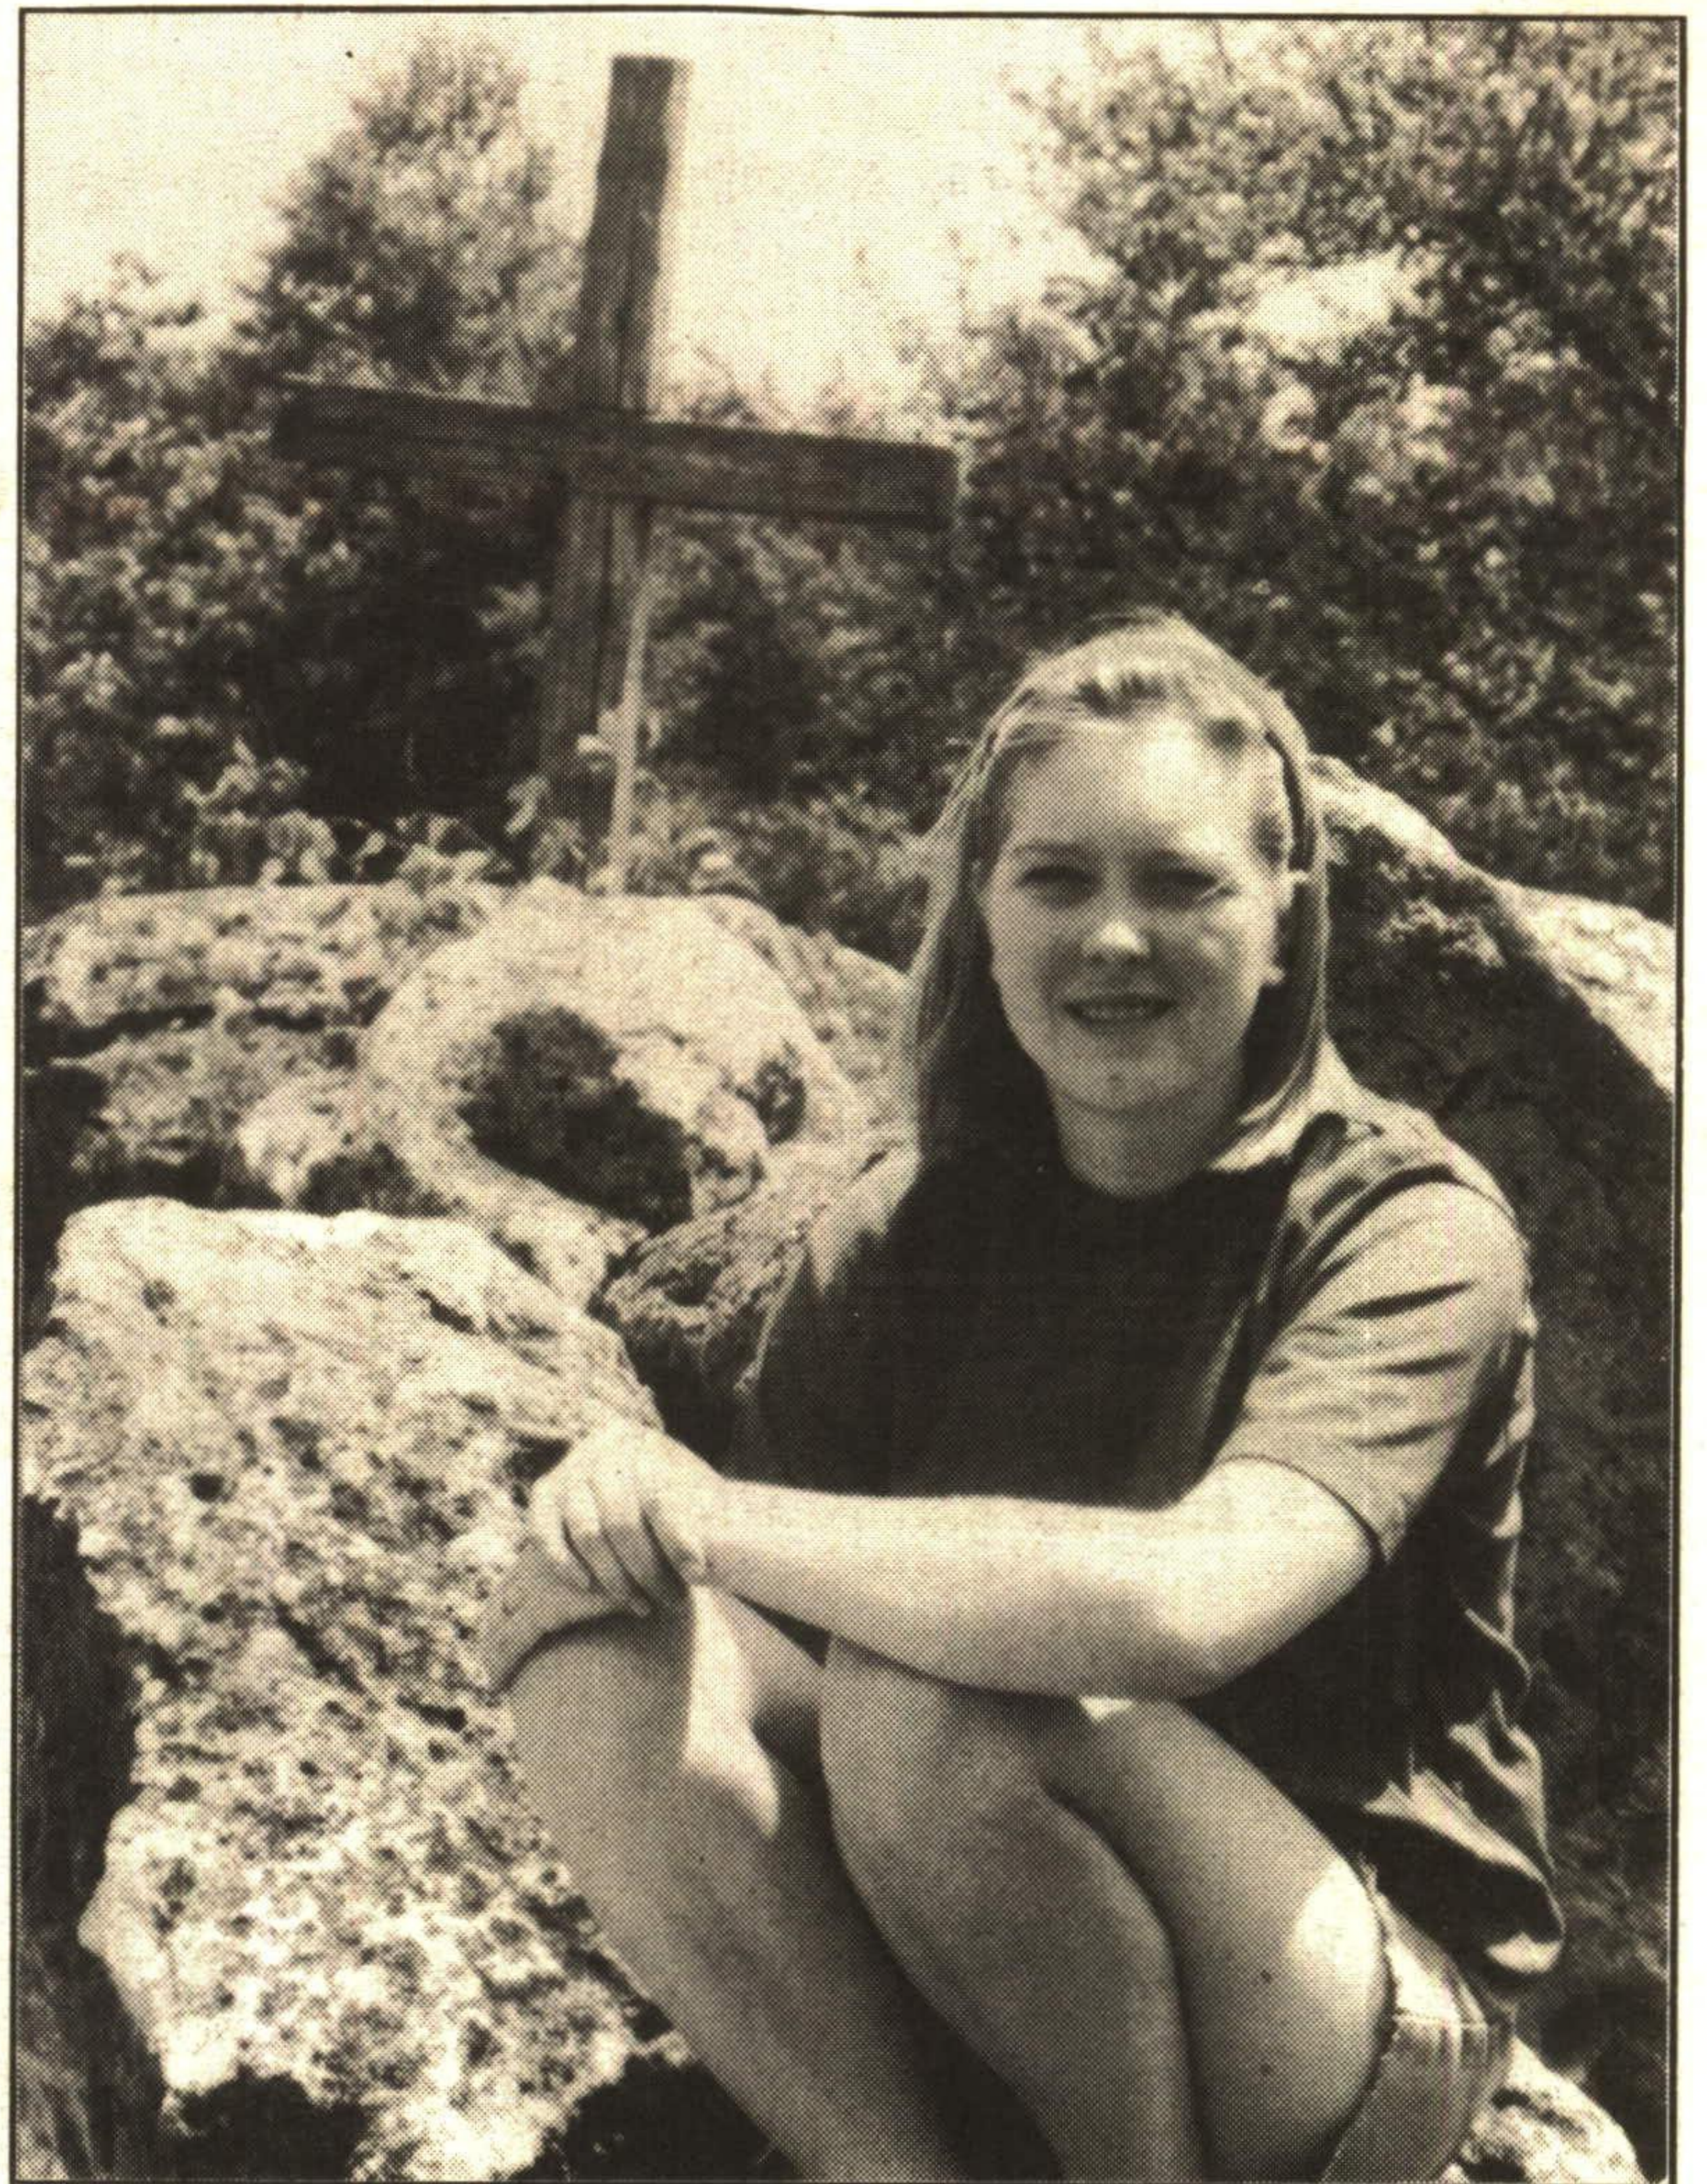

Tina has previously shown her work at juried art shows held at the Nassagaweya Art Show, Art Gallery of Peel and Rivercrest Art Gallery in Streetsville.

An opening reception will be held today, July 3, 2-6 p.m. and the show continues until July 31.

Tina will offer a demonstration of her technique on July 17 at the Gallery, and some lucky visitor will win one of Tina's graphics in a draw to be held July 31.

The gallery, owned by Betty Bassett and Roy Metcalfe, is located at 4193, 20 Sideroad, two kilometres east of the Guelph Line.

Hours are 2-6 p.m. Wednesday to Sunday. Other times by appointment. Call 905-854-2173 for more information.
