

Georgetown soccer results...

Girls Under-7

RBC claimed a 1-0 victory over Dunlop Insurance June 21. Lisa Sorenson, Britney Haller and Dianna McKay were RBC's top players. Krista Flynn and Jessica Boyer were the Dunlop stars.

Two days later, Firestone Tire narrowly defeated Standard Products 1-0. The only goal came from Sarah Toole. The second game of the evening had CIBC playing RBC to a scoreless draw. Good efforts were turned in by Katrina Neely, Josee Vanwissen and Sam Vandoornd for CIBC, and Rebecca Kogan, Britney Haller and Diana McKay for RBC.

Girls Under-9

Georgetown Opti-Mrs. handed Accura Molding a 2-1 loss. Both Opti-Mrs. goals were by Melissa Hann.

Wendy's Classics followed their tie the previous week with a 1-0 win against Halton Women's Teachers.

In a higher scoring tilt, the Butcher Shop played Blockbuster Video to a 2-2 draw. Jamie Lee Spoehr and Melanie Ferrugia scored for the Butcher Shop, Brooke Cobb and Courtney O'Reilly for Blockbuster.

To round out the day's action, Kiwanis Georgetown tied Elk's Lodge 1-1. Kim Jakulski of Kiwanis and Collen Schultz of Elk's Lodge were the scorers.

Girls Under-11

After a two week break, Spriggs Insurance returned to the pitch June 21 for a girls' under-11 soccer match versus Accura Molding. The effects of the long layoff showed, as Spriggs suffered a 5-1 defeat. Stephanie Young scored two goals for Accura. She was complemented by the one goal efforts of Meghan McKee, Regan Boyle and Michelle Boere. Ellen Smith scored for Spriggs. The same night, All State Insurance played Optimist Club to a scoreless tie.

Spriggs returned to action June 23 against Tim Hortons. The game was closer but the result was the same for Spriggs, which lost 2-1. Tim Horton goals were by Jacqueline Mousseau and Jacque Bajic, while Kate Duff responded for Spriggs. Duff, Fiona Campbell and Jessie Locke all had good games for Spriggs despite the loss.

Girls Under-13

Millieries TV Pink Panthers, Cakes of Elegance and Georgetown Lionesses all came through with victories in recent under-13 girls' soccer action.

The Pink Panthers defeated Phil Karda State Farm Insurance 2-1. The game was scoreless until early in the second half, when the Panthers' Ticky Anderson scored on a pass from Bethan Elliott. Kristen McDonald quickly responded for State Farm. Assists on McDonald's tying goal went to Cindy Benner and Kristina Zelek. Anderson then scored her second of the game off a Janine Taylor indirect free kick to give the Panthers the win.

In their game, Cakes of Elegance easily disposed of Georgetown Lioness Club 5-0. Goal scorers were Kathryn Weston, Laura Bowman, Laura Shields and Tamara Gilmore (2).

The Lionesses rebounded in their next game, outclawing the Panthers 3-0 for their first win of the season. Meghan Gogan began the scoring in the first half. This was followed by second half goals by Melanie Adams and Heather Stephens. Becky Culp was strong in the Lioness goal, making one save after another. Goalie Stephanie Power and defenders Angie Crane and Lindsay Sproule had good games for the Panthers.

Girls Under-15

In under-15 action, Wycroft Trim defeated Bolton "2" 2-0. Once again, all the scoring came in the second half despite pressure from the Wycroft Trim trio of Becky Gipp, Rachel Buikema and Jenna Colthart. Angie Zmija opened the scoring on a feed from Amanda Devries and Carolyn McNeal. Devries added the second goal.
