Eight is enough for ball squad

They may have played one man short, but the Acton Legion rookie hardballers sure showed Carlisle a thing or two July 6. Playing at Robert Little School, Acton walloped Carlisle 12-5.

With only eight players available for the game, Acton was forced to employ a two outfielder alignment. The two players, Robbie Rolfe and Ray Peterson, responded with some terrific plays.

On the hitting side, Tyler Holmes was the star with two base hits. The victory went to Sean Canary, while Troy Ethier recorded the save.

Acton Legion next sees action July 12 versus Waterdown.
