655 In memoriams

TARR, Joseph Sr. & Joseph Jr. - In loving memory of our dear husband and father who passed away, July 24, 1993 and of our dear son and brother who passed away, September 12, 1971. God has called you both home so softly That only you both could hear And no one heard the footsteps Of the angels drawing near We never asked for miracles But today just one would do To have the front door open And see you both walking through. Very sadly missed and forever in our hearts, with love mother and wife, Eteka and daughters and sisters, Kathy and Nora.

660 Card of thanks

KELMAN, Norman Charles - The family of the late Norm Kelman sincerely thanks everyone for the many kindnesses shown them during Norm's illness and since his passing on July 2nd. The cards, phone calls, flowers and gifts of food were very appreciated. We thank our very special friends who were always there for us and gave us incredible support and love. Much appreciation is extended to family members, friends, co-workers, sports groups, local businesses and the community for the outpouring warmth we have been shown. We thank Dr. Frank Richards for his care and compassion during Norm's illness. Thanks also to the Victorian Order of Nurses and the Red Cross for their help and to Rev. Tom Kingston, as well as the choir and organist of St. George's Anglican Church for the lovely service which Norm had helped plan. We thank the 9 Pall Bearers, whom Norm had especially chosen and who were all able to attend. We are grateful to the J.S.Jones and Son Funeral Home for the excellent manner in which they handled every detail. Norm was a very special person who never complained during his illness and he kept his marvelous sense of humour until the very end. He died peacefully, at home, which is what we all wanted. He will be greatly missed by all.
Marlene, Jamie and Shawn
