Aloha!

Little ones at Vicky Brown's home on Joycelyn Cres. recently enjoyed a Hawaiian theme party with hula dancers around the pool. Brown, (back left) and Petra Van Meijel (back right) of Brucewood St., operate private day care centres in their homes, as well as working with the Cherish Parent and Child Centre agency in Milton, which features professional day care complete with police checks, health and fire inspections and quality programs, of crafts, games and assorted activities. For more info, call Petra at 873-0533 or Vicky at 873-6546.

Leathertown Festival on today

The third annual Acton Leathertown Festival take place today (Sunday) from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The festival, which will take place in the olde Hide House parking lot, will feature many leather artisans showing and selling their work.

Items for sale will include leather jewelry, purses, hats, vests, boxes, belts and vases. Residents will have the chance to tour the town on a double decker bus and shop at the juried craft show featuring the work of more than 20 area craftspeople.

The children's activity tent will feature face painting, crafts and games. There will also be a jumping pillow for kids to play on.

Entertainment will be provided throughout the day. Scheduled to appear are Acton Citizens Band, Cheri Lindsay's Dancers, Acton Star Thru Squares and Country Dance Cloggers.

A traditional British Punch and Judy show will be put on at 1 and 2:30 p.m.

Admission to the Leathertown Festival is free. There will be plenty to eat as both the Rotary Club of Acton and Georgetown Optimist Club will be selling food.

Have you time to spare?

Two of your neighbors need a helping hand.

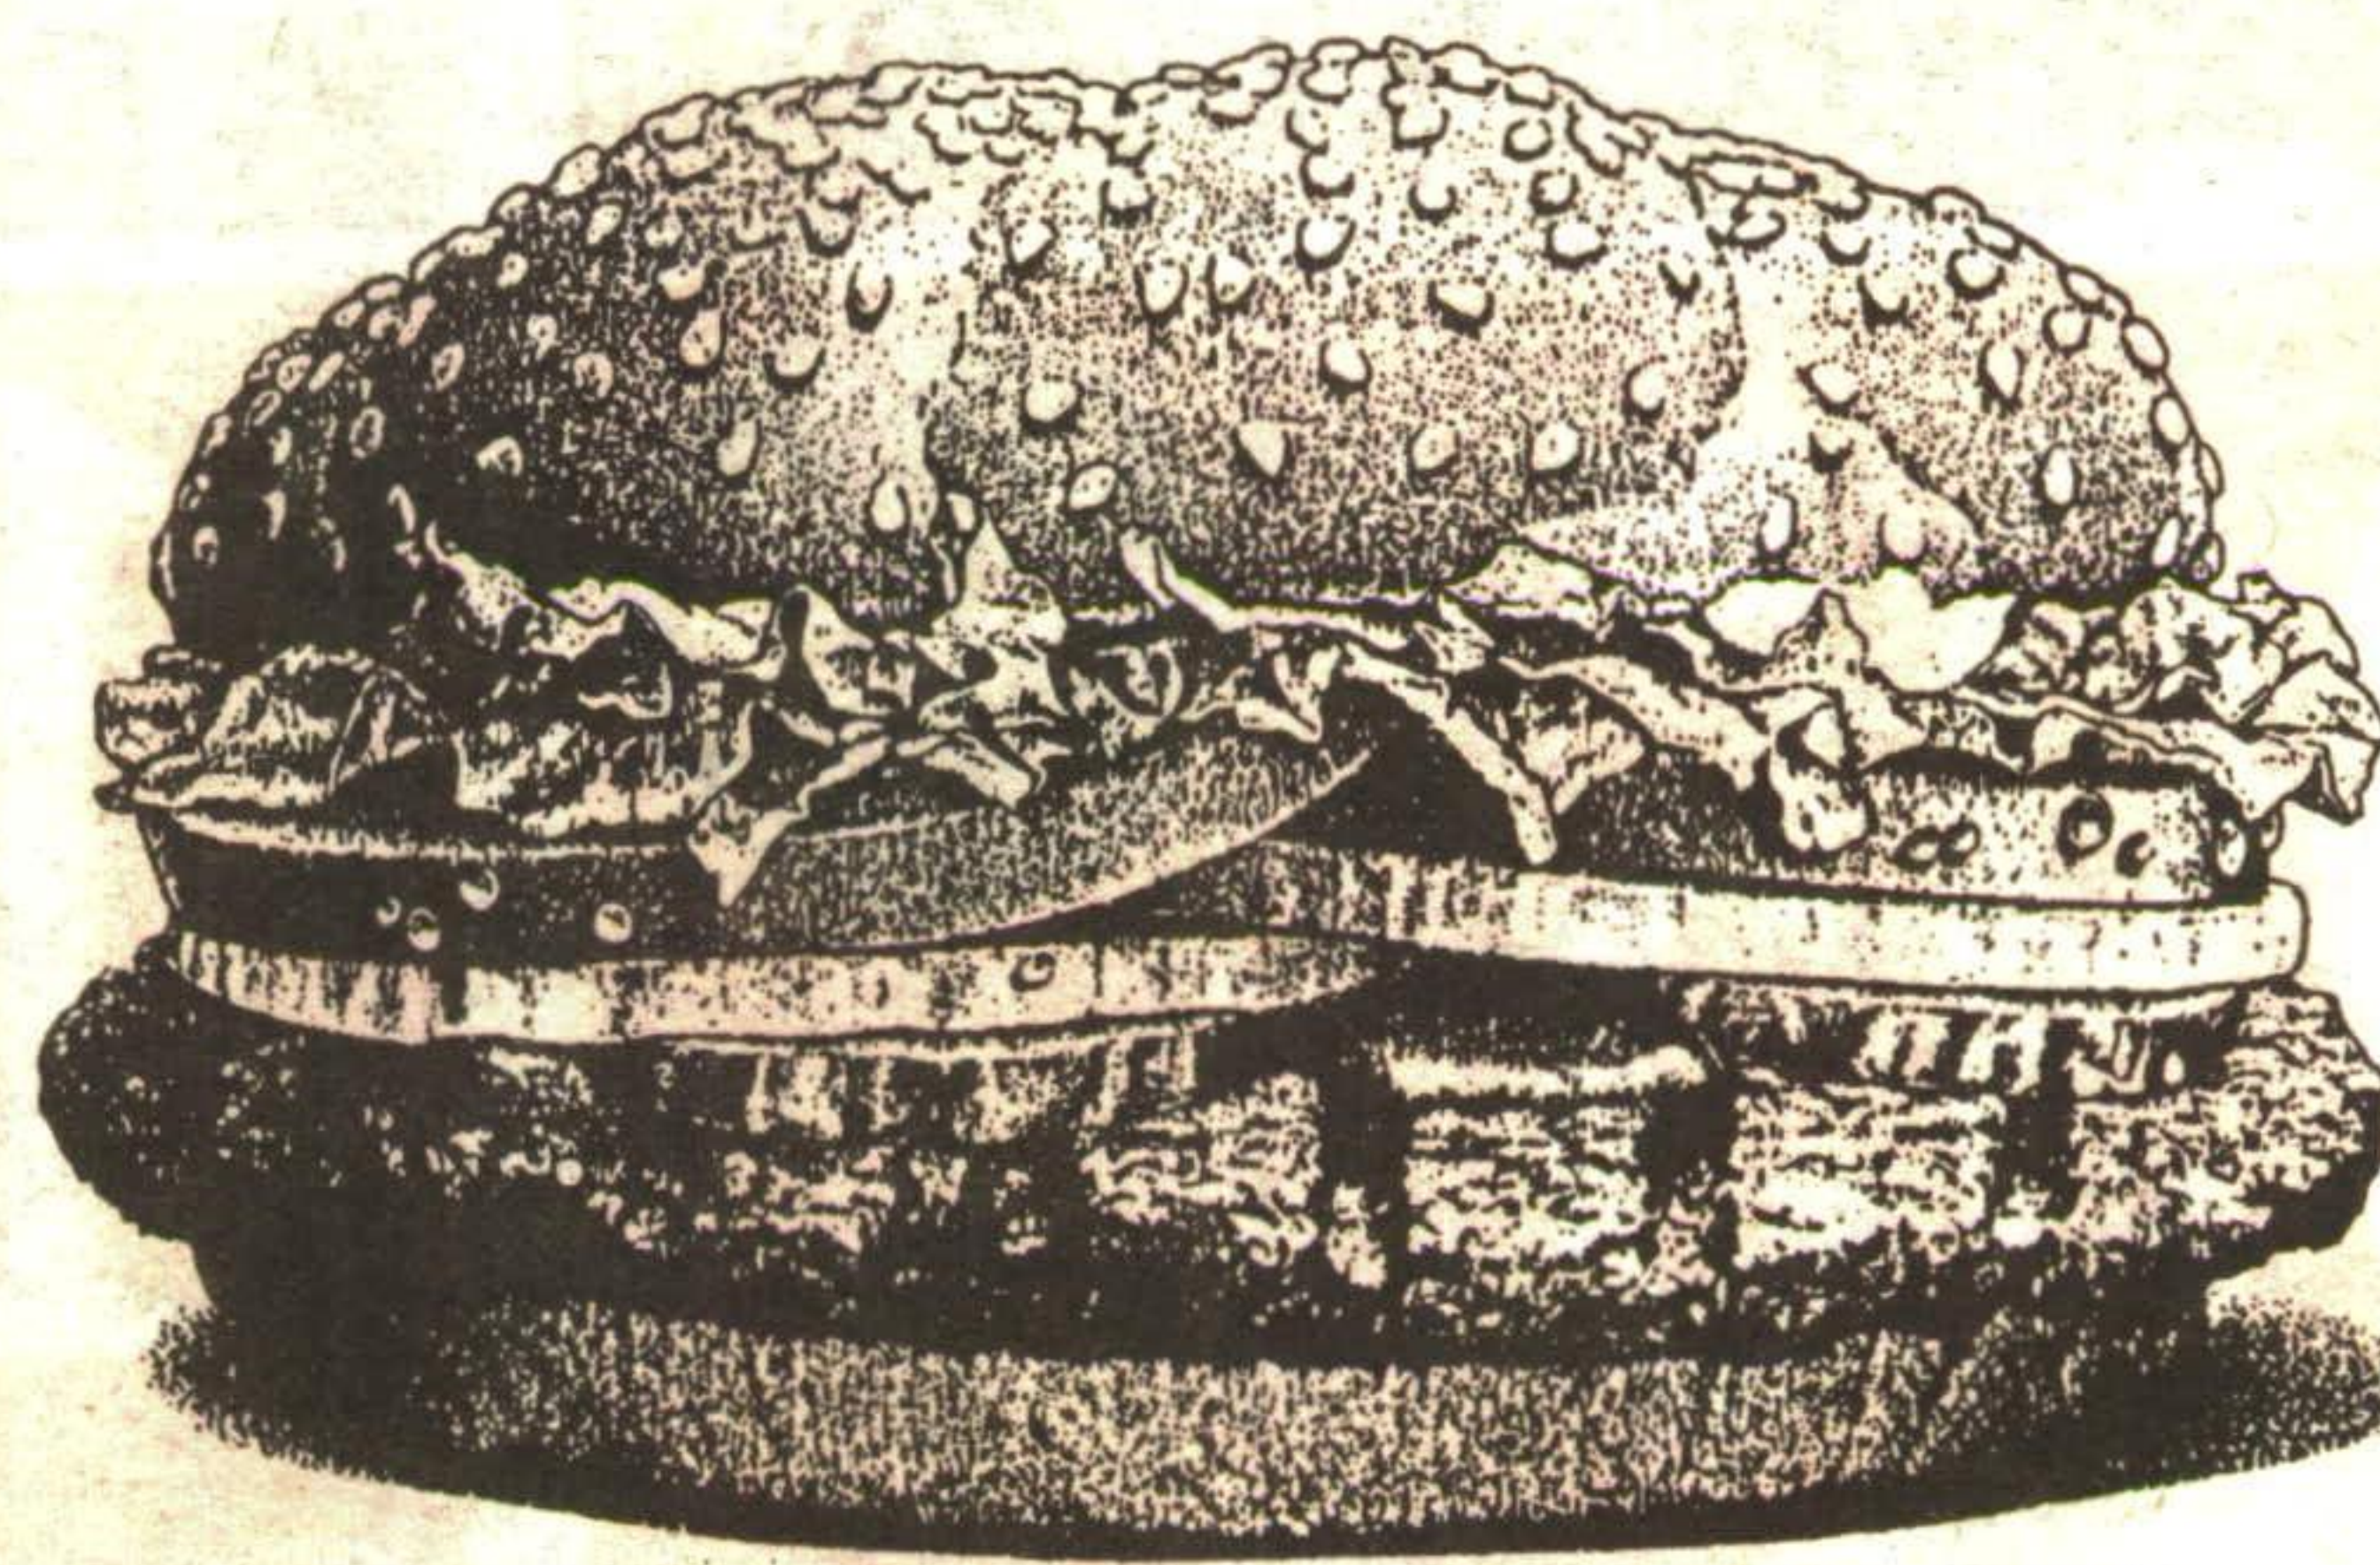

An elderly lady in Georgetown would appreciate a visitor who would help her go to the bank and Loblaws.

If you live in Acton and would occasionally enjoy company on a shopping trip to Guelph, one of our clients would like to go with you.

If you are interested in finding out more about assisting a senior in your town, call Karen at Halton Helping Hands, 878-6403.
