

Optimists sponsor event

Kids join police on camping weekend

The Optimist Clubs of Halton Region are sponsoring a Respect for Law Camp in Halton August 19-21.

Eighty young people (boys and girls ages 12 and 13) will be spending the weekend at Halton Regional Police Headquarters in Oakville.

The purpose of the camp is to bring young people and police together. Law enforcement agencies and the military will be presenting several demonstrations and lectures to acquaint young people with police, hopefully building a trusting relationship. Two previous camps have been tremendously successful.

Representatives from the Halton Regional Police Service, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Ontario Provincial Police, C.N. Police, Burlington Fire Department and the Canadian Military will all be demonstrating various roles for the students.

There will be fire trucks, military and police vehicles, the OPP helicopter plus demonstrations by Halton Regional Police's Tactical and Rescue Unit, Bomb Disposal Unit and police tracking dogs.

The Bomb Squad will be exploding a car that will be extinguished by the Burlington Fire Department.

The youths will arrive on Friday evening and stay until Sunday afternoon. They will sleep overnight in the gymnasium of the Shared Facilities at the Halton Regional Complex and will be chaperoned by police and military personnel.

It promises to be an exciting, informative, fulfilled weekend which will also include barbecues and corn roasts.

Police Blotter

Food taken

A concession booth at the Georgetown fairgrounds was broken into overnight Monday. Someone pried open the metal shutters and about $160-worth of food was taken, police said.

Jewelry, cash stolen

Thieves made off with jewelry and cash after breaking into a Trafalgar Rd. residence Tuesday, police said. The break-in happened sometime between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. The front door was forced open and damaged. The value of the missing goods is about $1,000, police said. They have no suspects at this time.

Attempt break-in Someone tried to break into a convenience store on Guelph St. in Norval overnight Monday, police said. They attempted to pry open a door, but were not successful.

Hair salon hit

The window on the front door of a hair salon on Delrex Blvd. was kicked in overnight Wednesday, police said. It appears that the culprit went through the cash register, but didn't come away with any cash. Damage to the door is estimated to be about $100.

Fence felled

About $500 damage was done to a wooden fence at a Peel St. residence in Acton sometime overnight Sunday, police said. They believe a vehicle may have driven into the fence at the back of the house.

Severe damage

Two cars were severely damaged in an accident in Georgetown at about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, police said. A 1993 Buick was heading west on Duncan Dr. when it struck a 1986 Oldsmobile parked on the street. A 33-year-old Georgetown woman was charged with failing to turn to avoid a collision.

Acton man charged

A 55-year-old Acton man has been charged with failing to stop at a sign after an accident last Wednesday evening, Guelph OPP said. A 1991 Plymouth was heading west on County Road 50 when it collided with a 1991 GMC truck which was heading south on Concession Three in Erin Township. The 19-year-old female driver of the Plymouth, a Milton resident, was taken to Georgetown Hospital, where she was treated and released. Her 18-year-old male companion, an Acton resident, was taken to Georgetown Hospital. The driver of the GMC was not injured.
