

Tachman celebrates 30 years

Tachman Car Club members rehashed old times as they celebrated the 30th anniversary of the club with a reunion picnic at Larry and Jeanette Cox's rural Acton home on Sunday afternoon. Among those on hand to trade old sto-

Foley lauded for saving man's life

By JANET BAINE

Mike Foley of Georgetown happened to be in the right place at the right time August 9 and saved the life of a Brampton man.

Foley, a candidate for Ward 3 council, was sitting in a court room with about 20 other people when Bill North, 52, sitting about 20 feet away, fell off his chair and convulsed.

"It was an instinctive thing. If you see something happen, you rush over and do something to make sure this person lives," Foley said. He checked for vital signs, and found North's heart had stopped and he was not breathing. Foley tore North's shirt and tie off and began performing CPR and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. He continued doing until the fire department came, and helped them until the ambulance arrived to take North to Mt. Sinai Hospital.

North, a Mississauga resident, speaking from his bed in the intensive care unit of Mt. Sinai Hospital in Toronto Monday, said he had a seizure as a reaction to medication he was taking.

While he had been taking the drug for years, it is quinidine-based and "can suddenly turn on you." It is used to keep a regular heart rhythm, and while he is feeling "pretty good," North will remain in the hospital until another drug is found to replace the one he was taking.

Foley is a correctional officer and training in CPR is required as part of his job.

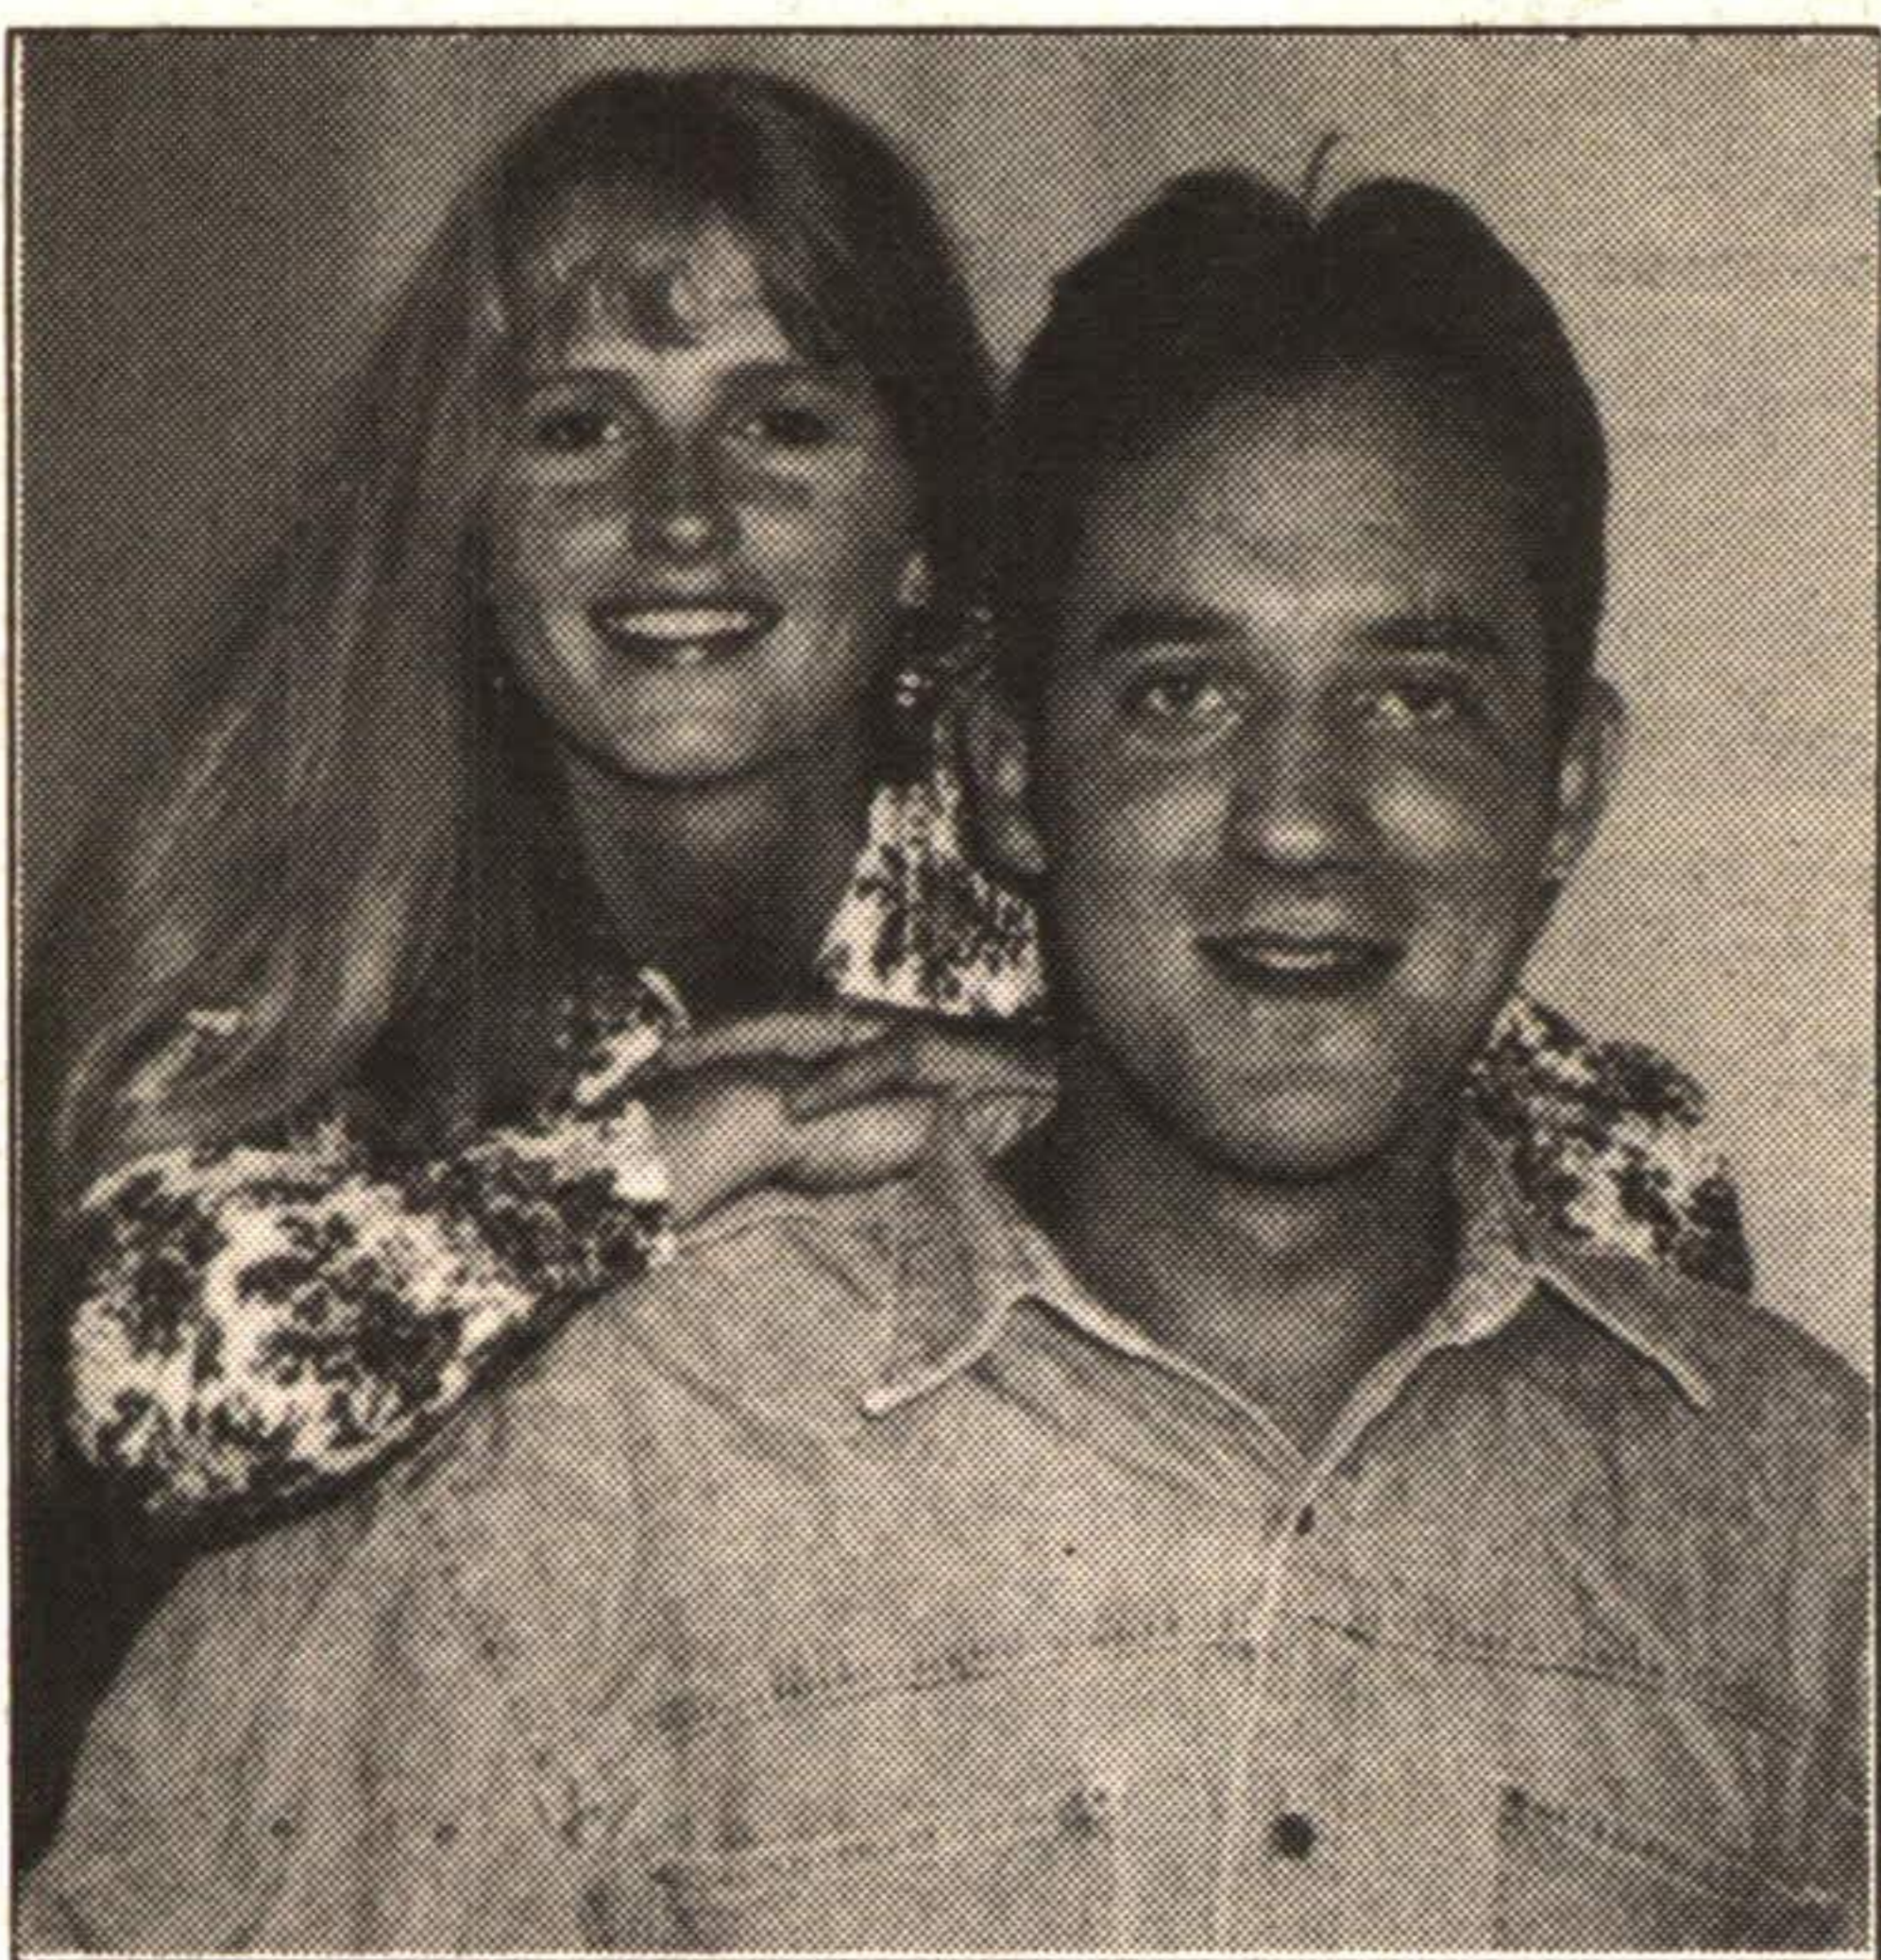

"I have been trained in this for years, but when it happens to you, it's a frightening experience, because you are wondering if you are doing the right thing as you are doing it," he said. "You're dealing with somebody living or dying... I did the best I possibly could. Thank God he is alive and fine."

A woman present during the incident, who did not want to be named, said that it was a horrible thing to witness and she credits Foley and Paddy Hanratty, another Georgetown resident, with saving North's life.

Foley said this is the second time he has used his CPR training. The first was 20 years ago on a Vancouver beach.
