Do-It-Yourself made easy by Canadian Living Design Team

Home Sweet Home can become a disaster area when it comes time to doing one's own renovations. Half finished projects that never end, paint on the walls that is too dark, crooked flooring, and other problems are not uncommon to the novice do-it-yourselfer.

To demonstrate how to make the task of home renovations a lot easier, Canadian Living magazine will host a series of working demonstrations at The Indoor Living Show, at Exhibition Place, September 15 to 18.

Canadian Living Decorating and Design director, Karen Kirk, says, "the design team has created a stage resembling a kitchen/family living centre for preparing meals, doing school work, or just relaxing. Along with ongoing demonstrations, the audience is encouraged to participate in various do-it-yourself projects. We want to show as many tips and techniques as possible for easy-to-do home renovations."

The Design Team will interact with the public, experimenting with the latest textiles, painting, flooring, and lighting techniques. One focus will be how to bring the outdoors inside all year round, by using skylights, garden doors and unique window treatments.

The public is also encouraged to ask questions about their own renovation and decoration projects.

Another attraction will be demonstrations by husband and wife design team Vi and Stu Cutbill, who are featured in October's Canadian Living, Decorative Finishes Made Easy. The designing duo will show how painting an intricate 'tromp l'oeil' wall finish can be as easy as potato printing, with their new block printing system, designed for do-it-yourselfers.

In addition to the Canadian Living feature area, The Indoor Living Show will showcase City & Country Home's Antiques & Collectibles Treasure Hunt, and a Silent Auction to benefit the Institute for the Prevention of Child Abuse.

The Indoor Living Show runs September 15-18, at the Automotive Building Exhibition Place, Toronto.

Time of the show are Thursday, September 15; 4 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Friday, September 16; 12 noon to 9:30 p.m. Saturday, September 17; 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Sunday, September 18; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Admission including taxes adults $7.50, seniors and children 8-14 years $4, children under 8 free with adult.
