North Peel Halton Girls Select

The North Peel Halton Corrigan Instrumentation "Hornets" under 15 girls' soccer team lost a thriller to Unionville on shoot-outs in the tournaments consolation round 3-1. The Hornets started the game quickly by scoring in the first 3 minutes of the game. The goal came off a great cross from left winger Kim Moore which was deflected in the net off the foot of striker Julie Hurst. The Hornets continued to press hard as halfbacks Jen Royce, Joanna Woodman and Charlene Urbanek controlled the mid-field for most of the game. Any offensive efforts made by Unionville were repelled by defensive backs Jen Barclay, Rachel Oleksiuk, Trisha Shave, Allison Kenny and Amanda Farrugia. When shots did come through goalie Annette Barichello was equal to the task. Unionville did manage to tie the game with only seven minutes left in the game as a result of a made scramble in the Hornets goal area. In the overtime much of the play was in Unionville's end however Hornets Kim Malcher, Kathy Irvine, Colleen Thompson, and Jen Tramontozzi were unable to capitalize on any of the opportunities created. Shootouts followed with five players chosen for each side. Unionville strikers connected with two goals while the Hornets remained unlucky and were denied any goals. In the preliminary round, Hornets' Julie Hurst and Irma Cicconetti provided the necessary goals to defeat the host Etobicoke side 2-0. Although Kim Moore gave the Hornets a 1-0 lead in the first half against Oshawa, the Oshawa side came back with four unanswered goals in the second.

Under 13 Select Girls

The Georgetown Under 13 select girls prove themselves at the Oakville Soccer Tournament recently.

Even though they are a lightweight and younger team for their age-group, the Georgetown U13 Select Girls proved that speed and teamwork can make up for lack of size. A goal scored by Unionville in the dying seconds of the game prevented the Georgetown Hornets from going through to the semi-final. Hornet's goalkeeper was "chaired" off the field by her team-mates following a string of amazing saves that thrilled parents and coaches alike.

The Georgetown girls were narrowly beaten 1-0 by East York in their opening game. Despite the loss, Georgetown were impressive as mid-fielder Kira Lawrence, Laura Shields, Bethan Elliott and Nicola Leishman worked tirelessly in mid-field, running into spaces and stringing passes together, while team captain, Paula Gougeon, was dominant as the Hornet's central defender.

In the second game against Unionville, Georgetown shocked everyone by going out into a 2-0 lead with spectacular "run and shoot" goals by Amanda Farrugia and Tiki Anderson. But it's never over till it's over, as the old saying goes, and the last kick of the game, ten minutes into injury time, tied the game up for Unionville.

In the final game of the day against Burlington, Georgetown triumphed 2-0 with a well-deserved opportunist goal from Annie Schaefer and another shot from Tiki Anderson. Forwards Sinead Irvine, Tamara Gilmore and Melissa Maveal played strong games for the Hornets, making penetrating runs to put pressure on the Burlington goal.

In three hours of soccer, the Georgetown girls allowed only three goals against them. Amanda Farrugia and Paula Gougeon played strong games in central defense, while strong tackling and marking from Rebecca Culp and Sharilyn Kogon kept the opposing forwards at bay. Several goal-line clearances from Kathryn Weston and reflex action saves from Heather Stevens gave Georgetown their first-ever shut-out in Select soccer.
