Musicians win gold medals

Students of the Ontario Academy of Music in Georgetown recently competed well at Funfest '94 held at the Heritage Inn in Rexdale.

Contestants from Brampton, Milton, Burlington, St. Catharines, Toronto and as far as Grand Prairie, Saskatchewan came together to compete for gold, silver and bronze medallions.

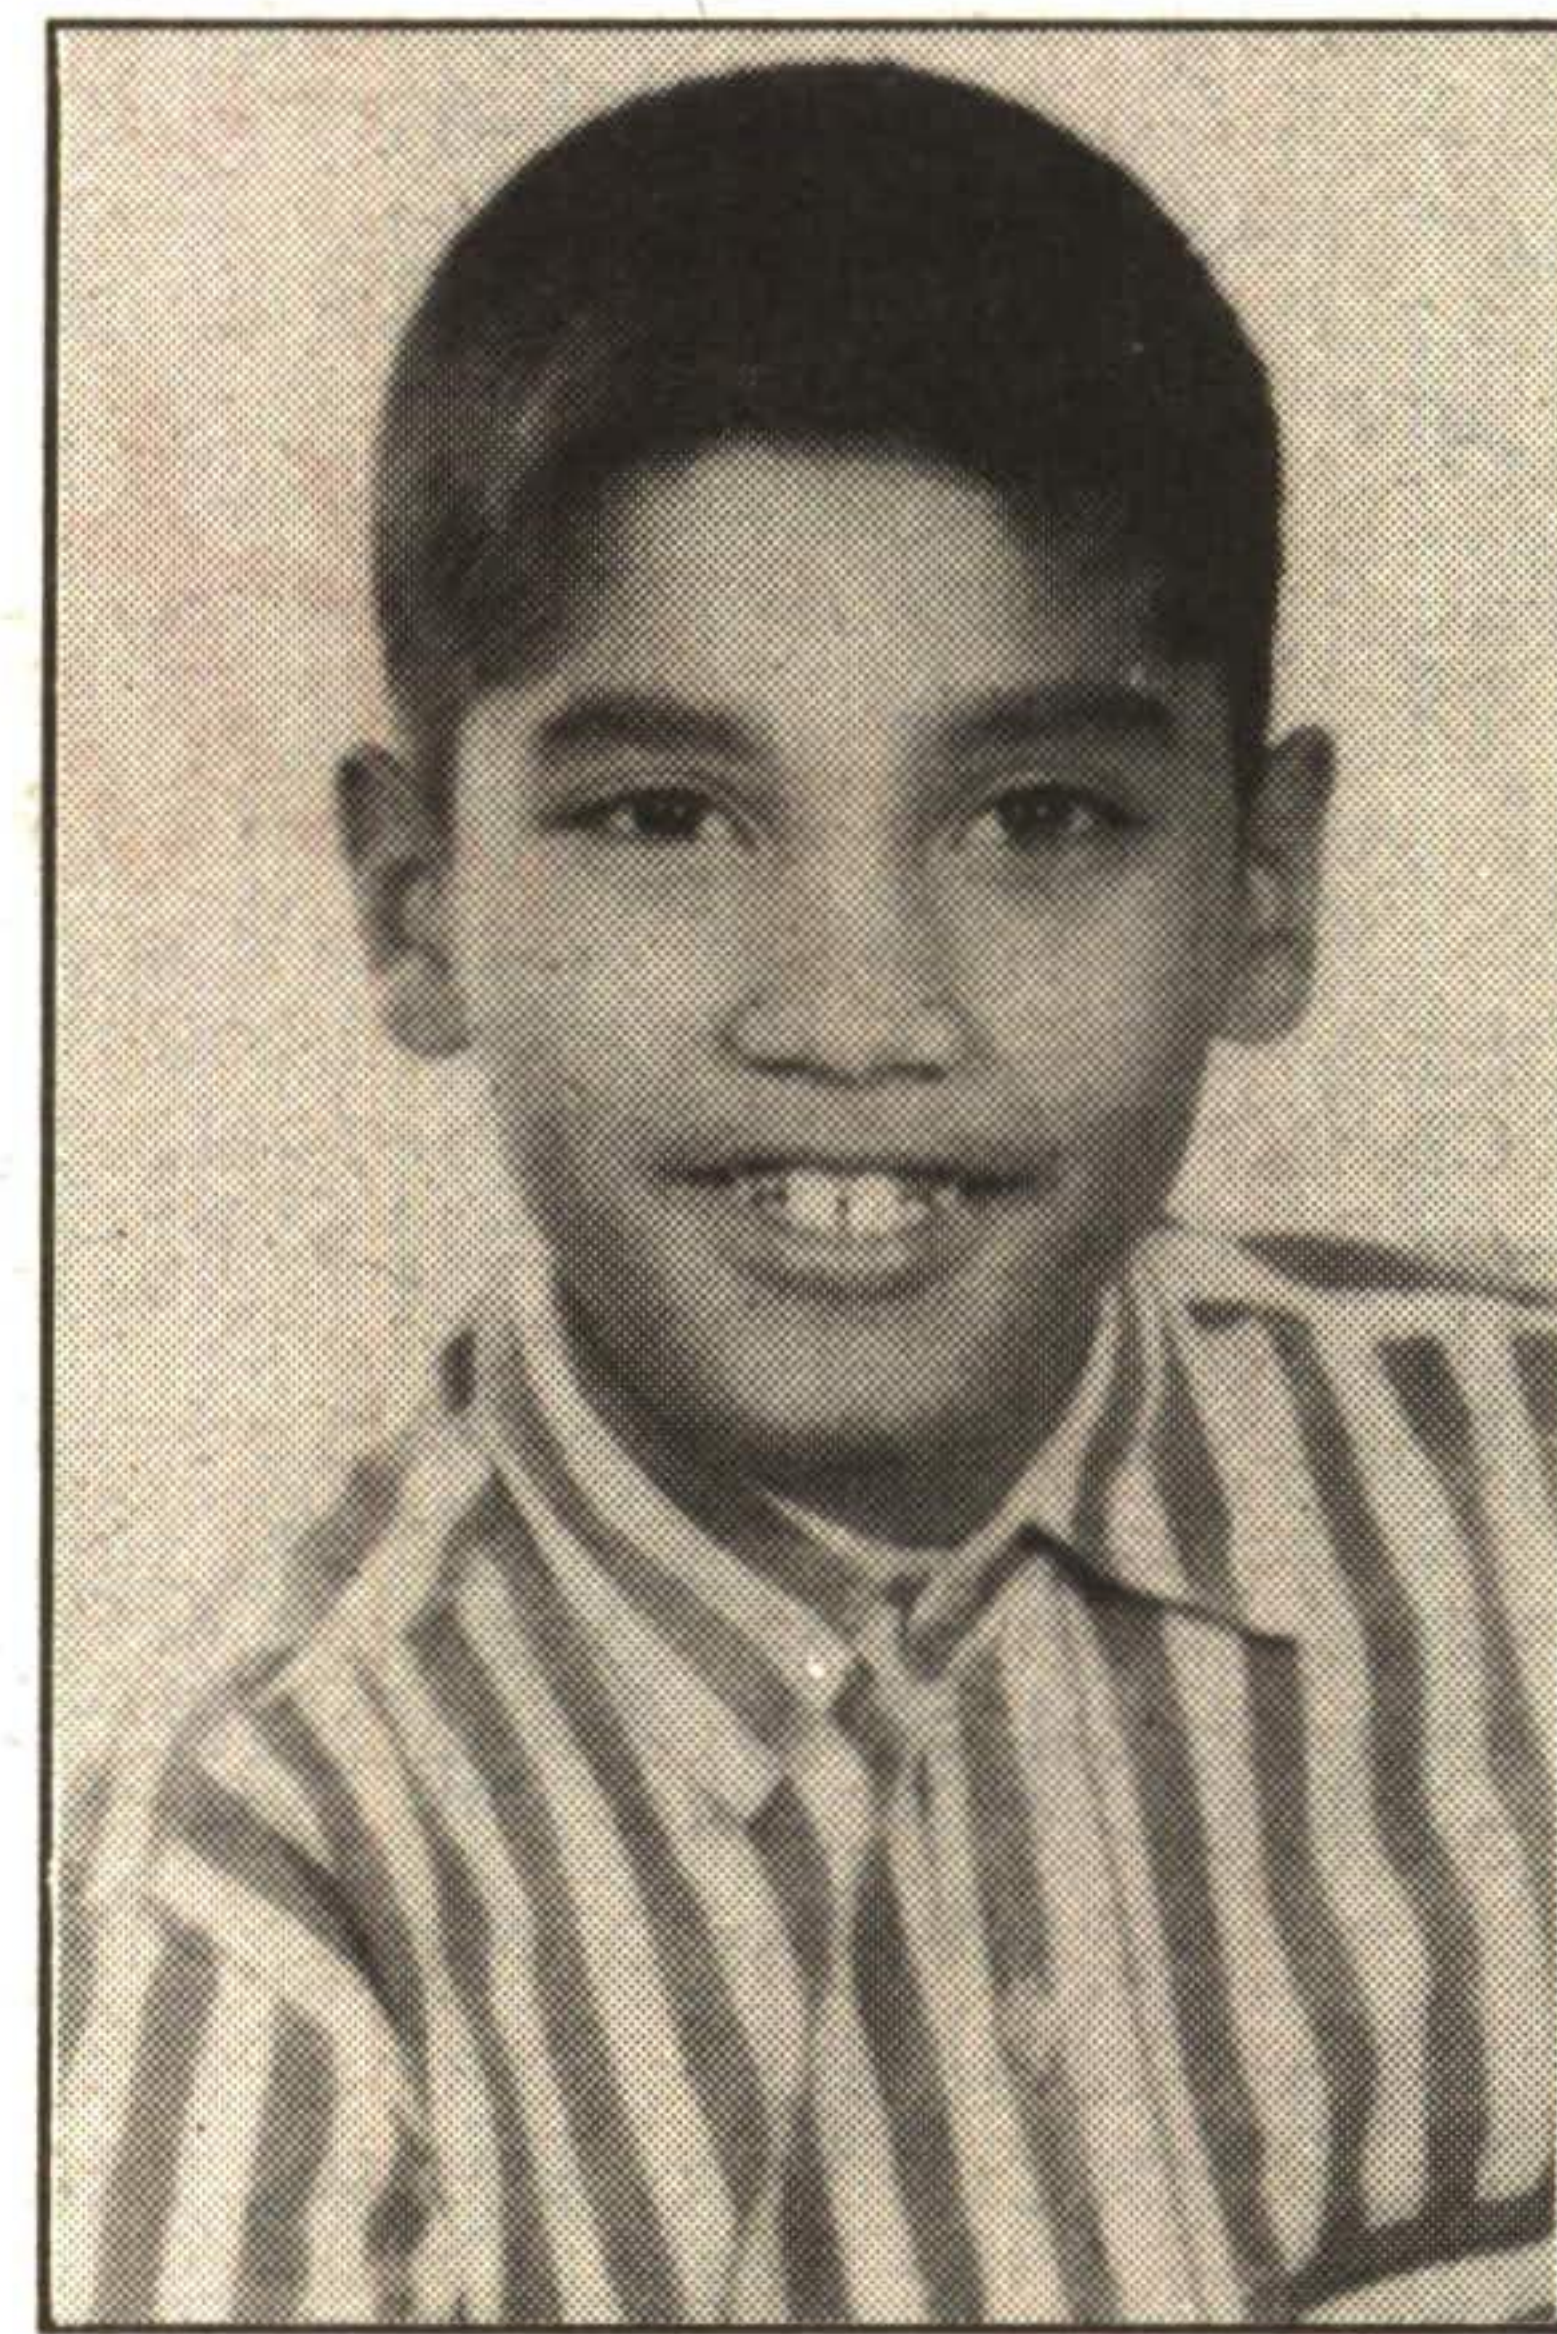

Students had the opportunity to display their technical abilities in the test piece category as well as their artistic talents in the Artist and Group competitions.

The staff of the Ontario Academy of Music in Georgetown extends their congratulations to all the students who participated in Funfest '94 and to announce the following results.

Gold medals went to Nigel Britto, Yu Ma, Bridget Rowe, C.J. Carr, Michelle Smith, Matthew Lee, and Steve Barber.

Silver medals went to Simon Benson, Kyla Hitchcock, Samantha Lee, and Meghan Ananthan.

Bronze medals went to Matthew Lee, Meghan Ananthan, Simon Benson, Katy Rebbetoy and Laura Takahashi.

For the third consecutive year, Nigel Britto (left) received a gold medal at Funfest '94. Also receiving a gold medal was Bridget Rowe (right).

Country singer headlines Hoedown

Streetsville is hosting its 3rd Annual Harvest Hoedown Friday, September 30 from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Streetsville is a historical village located five minutes south of the 401 on Mississauga Road.

Award winning country singer Patricia Conroy headlines the entertainment. As well Line Dancing instructors will be leading people with two left feet, two right feet or one of each. There will be a corn roast, a horse shoe toss, lasso, games, jail and bail, sidewalk chalk and more!

It sounds like fun and games, but it will be for a god cause because all of the Harvest Hoedown Festival's proceeds will go to the Streetsville Cenotaph Fund. Last year's Hoedown brought a couple of thousand people to Streetsville and this year many more are expected.

Try square dancing

Star Thru Squares of Acton invite you to try modern square dancing. A free night Sept. 20 at Acton High School Cafeteria (side entrance) at 8 p.m. This season beginners and second year dancers will meet on Tuesdays, with dancing on Thursdays at 8 p.m. for mainstream and plus level dancers. For more information call John Wigglesworth at 878-2678.
