

Gray Hares beat the Heat

In the Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff League championship game the Gray Hares burned up Can't Beat The Heat 14 -12, taking home the trophy and leaving the The Heat with runner up honors. Three Men & A Baseball Team won the consolation final 8 -7 over the White Sox and in the Coaches vs. Merchants game the Coaches came out on top 11-3.

"I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the coaches and merchants who once again made this game fun. Thanks to all" says Debbie Anderson of GLPL.

Competing for the coaches were Team #6 - Looney Goons were Dave Brown and Dean Norton, Team #13 - Sour Grapes were Dave Grant, Wayne Willis, Bob Hesselink; Team #12 - Last Call were Kevin Moore, Kieth Budes and Ken Lockwood; the coach for Team #4 - Goodness Greycious was Annie Bachel, Team

#11 - Da Mighty Aqua Ducks was Ron Marshal; Team #9 - Whining Devils was Roger Perryman; and the coach for Team #8 - 3 Men And A Basketball Team was Lloyd Sheppard.

The merchants who helped out in the tournament were Brad Smith and Ron Rux of Bill Smith Auto Parts; Ken Sproule of Ken's Auto Service; Paul Auty of Georgetown Chrysler; Terry Ciantarani and Manual Joga of TRA; Chris Peavoy of Arbro; Ken Buck and Jim Annett of Kendale Mechanical; Steve Harlow and Tom Harow of S & R Renovations; Dan Martin and Andrew Hammon of Pronto Rad & Muffler; Ed Ortila of Georgetown Honda; Bill Vanryn of Weed Control; John Vierra of JV Clothing and Frank Kirk the Umpire.

A banquet and dance is planned for all those who attended Saturday October 1 at the Acton Legion.

Out at second!

The action was fast paced as the Limehouse Factory Slo-pitch League wrapped up their season at the Glen Williams ball park last weekend. Curwood Packaging edged the Georgetown Referees Association 10-5 in the
