Minor atom

The John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom Raiders played host to Hespeler last Thursday and skated to a 2-2 draw.

Brett Velten put the Raiders on the scoreboard first after taking a pass from Blake Corrin. Hespeler tied it up but Andrew McGourty regained the lead for Georgetown with help from Thomas Stokes and Vince Burke. Hespeler was able to come back again in the third period resulting in a 2-2 tie. Kevin Bokowski played a great game between the pipes.

On Sunday, the Raiders traveled to Burlington and came home with a 2-1 win. The first period had Kevin Oulds scoring from Stokes. Burlington was able to tie the game in the second. Both teams kept the pressure on in this two-way game. Billy McDonald clinched the game winner at 3:31 in the third. Linemate Dan Walinga garnered the assist. Donnie Lane was outstanding in net making many key saves.

Major atom

Georgetown notched their third win of regular season with a 5-3 win over Oakville on October 15.

The PDS Raiders led the first charge of the opening period with good action at the Oakville end of the rink and a goal by Brad Snow this first of the night assisted by McCulloch. Georgetown goalie Joe Garvey was beaten by a high. Flying puck to tie the game with 2:15 left on clock.

The second period saw great photo on goal by McCulloch and then Busby. Georgetown scored the go-ahead goal at 7:02 by Scott Pike with a far out shot that had the Oakville goalie on his knees. Hard work paid off with McCulloch's goal at 4:36 assisted by Busby and Durham to make the score 3-1. A great shot by McIlvenna was stopped col. Snow got his second of the game at 1:36 remaining in the second.

The third period saw penalties taken by both teams - Garvey showed solid goaltending tonight as Georgetown rallied again with McCulloch's unassisted effort for his 2nd goal of the night.
