Not on the voters list for Monday's election?

Halton Hills residents who qualify to vote in the municipal election but are not on the voters list may still vote on Nov. 14.

On election day those not on the voters list should go to their polling station and get an oath form to be completed entitling them to vote.

To qualify as an elector the person must reside in Halton Hills, either as a property owner or tenant, from Sept. 6 to Oct. 14. Electors must also be Canadian citizens and 18 years old on or before the polling day.
