

Choir of Teen Challenge comes to Erin

The National Touring Choir of Teen Challenge will present an exciting and innovative program featuring music and dramatic testimony at Erin District High School (new gym) on Thursday, November 17, at 7:30 p.m.

The choir is composed of young men from all over Canada, the United States and the Bahamas.

The choir represents the student body of Teen Challenge Training Farm located outside London, Ontario. The men of Teen Challenge Choir collectively represent over 200 years of drug addiction, alcoholism and crime. They have shared their music on street corners, prisons, high schools, at professional sports events, churches, and military bases. They have appeared on countless radio and T.V. programs. Over the last 18 months, members of this choir have appeared in seven different countries, 47 states of the United States and across the Province of Canada. Lives of both young and old have been challenged and influenced by the music of these men.

Eulalie McKechnie Shinn (Marilyn King) listens with disdain as Charlie Cowell (David Hughes) fill her in on all the happenings ins Georgetown Globe Productions' The Music Man which opens Nov. 17 at John Elliott Theatre.
