Election round-up

Municipal elections were going on throughout Ontario last Monday. Here are the results from the areas surrounding Halton Hills.

Eramosa Township

Reeve Leverage Harris is back at the helm in Eramosa Township for a second term, in spite of a challenge.

The new deputy reeve is Rick Hughes, a former councillor. Gordon Tosh returns as councillor along with two new council members, David Adsett and Cathy McIntyre. Former council member Ken Mercer was defeated while Dale Hamilton stepped down.

Erin Township

Barb Tocher is the new reeve of Erin Township. The neophyte beat out the former Deputy Reeve John Holder. George Root, a former councillor, was acclaimed to the position of deputy reeve. The three new councillors were all acclaimed. They are Mike Wozniack, Caroll Thomas and Rick Hagyard.

Erin Village

There was only one contested council seat in Erin Village and John Carney now holds it. Terry Mundell was acclaimed as reeve, while Deborah Southerland is deputy reeve. John Pritoula and Doug Follett were acclaimed as councillors.

The Wellington County Separate School trustee for Erin/Eramosa is Dr. Hubert Lue-Kim.

The Wellington County Public School trustee for Erin/Eramosa is Pierre Brianceau.

Brampton

Brampton mayor, Peter Robertson, held onto his seat in Election '94, in spite of challenges from two other candidates.

John Hutton beat Bruce Reed for a Ward 6 council seat. Paul Palleschi was acclaimed as Ward 6 regional seat. Elaine Moore, and Norma Prior are the Brampton West trustees on the Peel Board of Education, while Linda Reid, Ken Adamson, and John Doran are the Brampton West trustees on the Dufferin-Peel Roman Catholic Separate School Board.

Milton

Gord Krantz is back as mayor of Milton, in spite of challenges from Glenn Botting and David Lloyd.

The new regional council seats went to Colin Best (Ward 2), who 'bested' Brad Clements, who held that post for 14 years. Barry Lee was acclaimed in Ward 1/3.

New council members are, Ward 1: Rick Day and Brian Penman; Ward 2: Wally Hunter, Ron Furik, John Challinor, Art Melanson; Ward 3: Gerry Brooks and Marion Howard.

The new public school board trustees are Tim Kingsbury and Flo Belford. Separate board trustees are Joe Deoni and Mary Lou Loughlin.
