Public Services Librarian Cindy Cooper announced the 12 winners of the seventh annual Halton Hills Public Library's Bookmark Contest November 8.

Selected from 220 entries, each winner's artwork will be the official Halton Hills Public Library bookmark for a selected month in 1995. The winners are: January — Seabrooke Leckie, February — Miles Gibbons, March — Rheanna Leckie, April — Louise Jarvie, May — Sarah McGinn, June — Adele Konyndyk, July — Shannon Davies, August — Nick Montgomery, September — Daniel Roffel, October — Ashley Homan, November — Kyle Oliver, December — Ben Carter.

Acton resident and children's book illustrator Karen Reczuch was on hand to congratulate the winners, and share some "secrets" about the creative process, using illustrations from her books, The Auction and Sure As Strawberries, as well as from an upcoming book, As Good As New. Copies of her books were available.

Halton Hills Libraries honored 12 local youths, winners in the Bookmark Contest. The selected artwork will be used as the official library bookmark for a specific month. Winners were January — Seabrooke Leckie, February — Miles Gibbons, March — Rheanna Leckie, April — Louise Jarvie, May — Sarah McGinn, June — Adele Konyndyk, July — Shannon Davies, August — Nick Montgomery, September — Daniel Roffel, October — Ashley Homan, November — Kyle Oliver, December — Ben Carter.

Library program

Calling all scientists

Join us at the Halton Hills Public Libraries on November 18 or November 25 at 2 p.m. for some sizzling scientific fun! Create your own chemical volcano! All participants must be in Sr. K. or higher grades. Registration for this fun-filled program in person or by phone. Call 873-2681 for more information.

This fall, the leaf to watch for is on Wintario's Winfall ticket. Find a leaf and win 3 bonus tickets! But only for a limited time.
