Hurricanes tie Gretzky-coached club

The Halton Flux Core International Hurricane novices, have been busy in the early going amassing a 5-3-5 record in their search for a .500 season.

Following a couple of losses to the powerful team from Brampton, Halton traveled to Brantford to the Wayne Gretzky Recreation Centre Oct. 23, to be greeted by the "Great One's" father, Walter Gretzky, to share stories and autographs with the Hurricanes and to wish them luck against the team he was going to coach 15 minutes from then.

Walter Gretzky's Brantford team is a formidable foe and not to be taken lightly, considering the success he has had with his own boys.

From the opening face off it was tough "grind it out" hockey in which Brantford had continued success right through to the remaining minutes of the third period, leading the Hurricanes 4-1.

A short chalk from coach Dave Syvret fired 'em up and let them go. Halton went on to score 3 unanswered goals, the final goal scored with :26 seconds left in the game. for a 4-4 draw.

On the score sheet Tyler Czuba, Derick Greaves, John Moxham and Adam Kemp put the pucks in the net assisted by Jeff Paznar, Peter Shultz, Gaylen Sheenan 2, H20

Wickens, and Derick Templeton.

Back home in Hillsburgh, the Flux-Cored Novices played back to back games Nov. 5 and 6, against Burlington and Stoney Creek.

Burlington has great goaltending, as the Halton managed to eek out a 3-2 win.

Todd Gilmour opened the scoring for Halton, assisted by John Moxham and Jeff Paznar. The second goal went to Jeff Paznar from Peter Shultz and Todd Gilmour, and the winner went to Andy Alerie from Adam Kemp.

The November 6 game against Stoney Creek was played with keen intensity as the Hurricanes rallied in the dying seconds of the third period to earn a draw.

Adam Kemp from Andy Alerie, John Moxham scored assisted by Peter Shultz and Todd Gilmour had Halton trailing by one in the final minute.

Derick Greaves was the hero as he scored the final marker from Andy Alerie.

Minor novice Hurricanes blast Brantford 7-1

The Halton Sentrex Minor Novice Hurricanes picked up another two points at Gretzky Arena on Sunday Nov. 13 by blasting Brantford by a score of 7-1.

The defensive pairs of Ryan Clost, Tipher Ley, Howie Martin and Jason Vieira were exceptionally strong. Kyle Russell made several good saves in net.

Hurricane point getters were Matt Bronizewski with 3 goals, 1 assist; Robert Sgarbossa with 2 goals, 1 assist; Jay Sprague 1 goal, 1 assist; Dylan Stawarek 1 goal; Jason Vieira 3 assists; Jonathan Southgate, Bobby Smith and Tyler Holmes each counted 2 assists. Matt Lyons and Tipher Ley had 1 assist apiece.

The Hurricanes next game is at home on Nov. 21 against Chinguacousy at 7 p.m.
