Holy Cross students collect coupons to help buy toys for Christmas

The citizens of Georgetown and surrounding area are to be congratulated and thanked for their generosity this Christmas holiday season.

The third annual Holy Cross School charity drive raised $2,000 worth of toys for families utilizing the Georgetown Food Bank and the Halton Woman's Place.

This event was conceived by teachers and students of Holy Cross School in conjunction with Tracey Craig, store manager of Georgetown's Canadian Tire.

Collection boxes were placed throughout the local area so that anyone wishing to donate coupons could do so for a good cause.

Volunteers who donated time and/or Canadian Tire coupons included members of Holy Cross School and parish, as well as employees and patrons of the local Canadian Tire store and gas bar.

The Georgetown Food Bank and the Halton Woman's Place extend a warm thank you for the public's generosity and support in making this a joyous Christmas.
