Four Preceptor Gamma Chi members excel

By JEANETTE HEINEMANN
Special to The Independent/Free Press

On October 11, Preceptor Gamma Chi was fortunate to have as a speaker Georgetown resident Joanne Fitzgerald, illustrator of children's books and Governor General Award winner, share some of her outstanding work with us. We all appreciated the time Joanne spent with us.

Halton Hills council were happy to welcome the chapters of Preceptor Delta Cappa, XI Delta Beta, XI Ypsilon Chi and Zeta Phi to a fall friendship night.

The event was hosted by a member of Preceptor Gamma Chi chapter. Good food, good friends made a very special evening.

On Nov. 22 four members of Preceptor Gamma Chi will be taking their laureate degree. Etta Mills, Jassy Campbell, Louise Giffin and Rose Marie Baskin. These members have excelled in their dedication to their chapter and community.

Preceptor Gamma Chi will be enjoying other fall social events:

Nov. 25th, Theatre Night to enjoy the Georgetown Globe Production of the Music Man; Dec. 20, a potluck Christmas Dinner and Gift Exchange.

Although the members of Preceptor Gamma Chi enjoy many social events throughout the year they are very serious and work hard to make sure that they keep the commitments to the programs they support which have included in the past, the Halton Women's Shelter, Georgetown Food Bank and the Cancer Society.
