The GDHS Music Department will be holding their annual Christmas Concert at 7:30 p.m. December 10. The concert will feature over 100 students from the High School Band, Chorus, Carol Singers and Jazz Band. The tickets are $4 for adults, $3 for seniors and children and $12 for families. The proceeds of the concert go towards the Music Department.

This will be Sheri Buker's fourth time playing in the Christmas Concert. When asked what she thought of playing in it again she said, "I always look forward to it. It's fun." So come and enjoy the sounds of the season.

Christmas is nearly upon us, and the usual traditions of the holiday are here again. The decorations, the amazing-once-in-a-lifetime-giant-warehouse-clearance sales, the parties and the Christmas specials that are shown every year on television are all signs of its impending arrival.

Christmas means different things to different people. To some it symbolizes a time of joy and family togetherness, to others it may mean more, such as the days surrounding a child's birth or an anniversary. It is also a time to forgive or at least forget past problems with friends or relatives.

For some reason the effect of Christmas on most of us is a calming, joyful feeling. But for an unfortunate few it sometimes brings about sadness or regret, maybe over a close one's death or separation, or a bad experience in a past Christmas.

I'm not going to pretend the holiday is happy for everyone, but for those that feel this way try to celebrate Christmas for those who cannot, or try to remember the good times you had. A Latin saying comes to mind; haec olim meminisse iuvabit — time heals all wounds.

So, to all you out there Merry Christmas and Happy Hanukah.
