Growing an Angel tree

Finding the meaning of Christmas, students from St. Francis of Assisi School sit in front of the "Angel" charity tree in the lobby of the school. The Catholic Parent Teacher Association of St. Francis of Assisi School in Georgetown has not only placed a Christmas tree in the front lobby of the school, but have placed the spirit of giving there as well. On the branches of the tree, hang numerous "Angels" which represent a needy child in the community. On the back of each "Angel" is printed the age and gender of one child in need. The school hopes that students, with parental permission, will take an "Angel" from the tree and purchase an appropriate age/gender unwrapped gift which will then be distributed to the needy children through local charities in Halton Hills. In doing this, The St. Francis of Assisi CPTA hopes to help students involved discover the real meaning of Christmas.
