

Kidprint

■ Blockbuster Video has recently launched its third annual Kidprint child video identification program. Throughout August parents are encouraged to bring their children to a Blockbuster Video store to have them videotaped. Blockbuster will produce the Kidprint video free if parents bring in their own VHS tape. Parents can purchase a special Kidprint tape for $3 with proceeds going to Child Find Canada.

Each child who is videotaped will receive a kids video card entitling them to a free kids video during August.

CORI'S NAIL BOUTIQUE /BODY AND SOLE

Ensuring her clients are pampered is a top priority for Cori Cochrane, the owner of the recently opened Body & Sole Aesthetics and Electrolysis and Cori's Nail Boutique.

Cori says the business, which she opened early this month in Georgetown, provides a full range of health and beauty services including skin care, electrolysis, waxing, massage, aromatherapy, make-up, new "light concept" nails, manicures, pedicures and special treatments for hands and feet.

"We believe beauty is more than skin deep," said Cori. "We like to make people feel good." She said her family has been involved in the health and beauty field for many years and she can recall serving coffee to clients and washing and drying towels in her parents' salon when she was a child.

"Even as a little girl I always had an interest in the health and beauty field," said Cori, a certified electrologist and aesthetician.

Body and Sole Aesthetics and Electrolysis and Cori's Nail Boutique, located at 164 Guelph St., is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Thursday and Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. For an appointment call 873-9558.
