MP has good attendance

Halton-Peel MP Julian Reed had the fourth best voting record in the House of Commons for the last sitting of Parliament.

A recent report released by the House of Commons Reference Service for the second session of the 35th Parliament, named Reed in the fourth spot and revealed he had a 97 per cent attendance record for votes.

"It is sometimes very difficult to make all of the votes, but voting is one of the most important responsibilities of a MP," said Reed. "We normally get advance notice of votes however, this spring was very hectic and votes were happening at any time, which makes scheduling very difficult."

The Hill Times newspaper has listed all 295 MPs in its latest edition giving special mention to the 10 best and 10 worst voting records. Liberal MP John Loney is tied with Bloc MP Pierre Brien for the best record at 100 per cent, while Tory leader Jean Charest tops the worst list with 8 per cent attendance.

History notes

Peter Berry of Heritage Halton Hills points to the plaque which designates the Acton Town Hall as an historic property. It will be officially unveiled today (August 11) at 1:30 p.m. Members of the public are encouraged to drop by the building on Willow St. for the unveiling which coincides with Acton's Leathertown Festival. The Acton Town Hall was opened in 1883 and was built to reflect the aspirations of the community. It was preserved by a consolidated effort of the local residents in 1977.
