

Limehouse midgets claim top spot

The Limehouse Midget Girls fastball team rallied for a 4-4 tie with Inglewood on Wednesday to clinch the division title in Intercounty Softball. The tie capped a 14-1-1 season for Limehouse.

The game was scoreless through two until Inglewood scored once in the third. After two three-up-three-down innings for both teams, Inglewood notched three more runs in the sixth to take a 4-0 lead.

Limehouse started its comeback in the bottom of the seventh. A single by Sharon Kearsy started the inning and Sheri Buker followed with a walk. Carrie Schenk's double scored Limehouse's first run and put two in scoring position for Laurel Komorowski. She rocketed a triple to centre to close the gap to 4-3. Alley Campbell singled in Komorowski with the tying run before Limehouse ran out of outs.

Robin Zander pitched all seven innings, giving up eight hits, striking out three and walking one. She got outstanding defensive support from Sheri Buker, who hauled in a would-be homer in the third, and Karen Davies, who quickly tracked down a single to prevent another Inglewood run from scoring in the sixth.

Limehouse will now open the playoffs against Hillsburgh as they try to add a playoff championship to their regular season title.

Limehouse edged Hillsburgh 13-12 in their second last regular season game. Hillsburgh exploded offensively, nailing Limehouse hurlers Zander and Campbell for 19 hits. Limehouse held on by squashing several Hillsburgh scoring opportunities with some great defensive plays and by taking advantage of some sloppy base running by their opponents.

Schenk had a perfect night at the plate for Limehouse with four hits, three for extra bases, and a walk. She drove in three runs and stole three bases as well. Zander also had four hits while Alley Campbell was 3 for 5 and drove in three runs.

Earlier, Limehouse dominated Harriston in a lop-sided 18-4 win. Limehouse had the bats in full swing with 29 hits, eight for extra bases. Kearsy had five hits and three RBIs while Lindsay Brown, Campbell and Schenk each had four hits. Kearsy also picked up the win while Zander notched the save.

Bantams battle with Milton

Georgetown Bantams Eagles have had their hands full with Milton in recent Central Ontario Baseball Association action.

The Eagles fell 6-4 to Milton as Matt Walker and Shawn Hill combined to strike out 13 batters.

Walker was also hot on the mound in a rematch that ended in a 3-3 draw. Walker went six innings before giving way to Hill in the seventh. Sean Muscat had two RBI in the contest while Hill pounded out two doubles and a single.

In other contests the Eagles thumped Mississauga North 15-7 and had little trouble in a 9-2 win over Waterdown.

Andrew Cowling led the attack on Mississauga North with a single, a double and four RBI.

Paul Dimarco led the hit parade against Waterdown with a single and a triple. Andrew Coe pounded out a pair of singles.

Eagles grounded in Bolton

The Georgetown Rookie Ball Eagles avenged an earlier 9-1 loss by downing Bloor 10-2 in recent action. They also competed in a Bolton tourney, downing Queensway 20-1 before losing back-to-back encounters to Lucan 9-8 and North York 9-2.
