

Over Kilbride and Hornby Acton mosquitos win pair

The Acton #3 Stanley Acme mosquito baseball team took two straight games over Kilbride and Hornby A recently.

Acton first dumped Kilbride 16-10 in a three-run mercy game. Adam Roach worked the first two innings and got the win. His efforts included three strikeouts.

Relievers Robbie Rolfe and Shaun Richards combined to close out the final frame. Ray Peterson and John Hirlehey each had three runs while Rolfe, Roach, Joe English and Stephen Lea all brought home two runs.

Single runs were recorded by Lance Morin and Mike English.

The following evening, Acton edged out Hornby A in an 11-10 final. Once again Roach started on the mound and fanned five batters over three innings for his second victory in as many days.

Tyler Holmes closed out the last two innings, and also struck out five Kilbride batters.

Roach also led at the plate with three runs while Holmes and English had two each. Rolfe, Morin, Richards and Joe English scored one run apiece.
