

DDH triumphs in Kinsmen Girls Softball League play

Sports in short

Mayor's tourney set

The 15th annual Optimist Mayor's Golf Tournament will be held Tuesday, August 27 at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club.

Tee-off time for the scramble format tournament is 1 p.m.

The tournament will cost $90 per player, which includes green fees, use of a power cart, lunch, a steak dinner and prizes.

To register, or for more information, call Scott Campbell at 873-7991 or John Fendley at 877-2931.

Deadline approaches

The final sign-up for the Hi-Lite Hockey School will be held Sunday, Aug. 25 from 7-8:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Arena.

The school will have the Re/Max hot air balloon on hand to take players for a ride. The balloon rides will coincide with the hockey school's barbecue. There are still about 30 openings for the camp, which runs Aug. 26-30. For more information about registering call 873-4991.

ELITE LEAGUE
DDH Distribution 13,
Halton Commercial Printers 12
 DDH came from behind with four runs in the bottom of the seventh to win late again. Julie Bottomley lashed a two-out triple to even things up with the Printers. Nicole Creasy then singled in the game winning run.

Erin Snook led at the plate for the Printers with three doubles while Senior call-up pitcher Amanda Nicholl had a strong performance on the mound and Wendy Vanderlaan made a key double play in the fourth.

Norval Farm Supply 19,
Picture and Presents 17
 Norval's bats got the job done, with standout work by Chantelle Lambert who collected three hits and four RBIs. Teammate Valerie Dennis scored four runs for the Farmers.

For P&P it was Beth Rowland taking on the role of game star with a four-hit showing in the losing cause.

SENIOR LEAGUE
Knechtel's 32, Dunlop 8

Knechtel's broke open a close game with a huge sixth inning. The highlight of the game was a home-run by Jaime MacDonald while Elena MacLeod was the star with five hits and five runs. Jenn McMullin was impressive in the field for the grocers.

For Dunlop, Kristen Higgins reached base safely on four separate occasions and managed to cross home plate on three of them. Amy MacDougall played great defense both behind the plate and at shortstop.

Remax 12, TD Bank 7
 A home run by Cynthia Arnold, combined with solid hitting up and down the lineup, helped Remax avenge a previous loss to their banking opponents. TD couldn't get much going offensively, with the exception of a three-hit, three-run performance by Mandy Storey.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE
Sammy's Ice Cream 18,
Design Builder 9

Sammy's big bats did the damage as they scored big through the middle innings and then held on. Andrea Lefebvre went four-for-four and made two unassisted double plays to anchor both offensive and defensive efforts for the winners.

Rachel Martin and Elizabeth Fogal also had multi-hit showings. Design Builder got their usual solid pitching and fine offensive contribution from Leanne Lyons, while Junior call-up Keri Cadger was also solid on the mound.

Optimists 23 Dairy Queen 5
 This lopsided contest featured two double plays by Optimist infielder Jennifer Harrison and three-run efforts by Christine Elliot, Laura Takahashi and Kristen Price-Jones.

Michelle Ezekiel, Jordan Hutson and Amy Moore all had multi-hit performances for DQ.

Work That Body 12,
Dairy Queen 9

A strong pitching campaign by mound-mates Nicole Dutkowski and Devon MacLean helped Work That Body to a close come-from-behind victory.

The undermanned DQ

squad got off to a comfortable lead but just couldn't hang on. Laura McGowan was the game star for DQ, cracking two singles and scoring two runs. Sarah Jones also scored twice in the losing cause.

JUNIOR LEAGUE
Delrex Smoke Shop 30,
Young's Pharmacy 6

Elizabeth Black and Kelly Haines unloaded with home-runs while the rest of the Delrex Smoke Shop lineup contributed at the plate for a tremendous offensive showing.

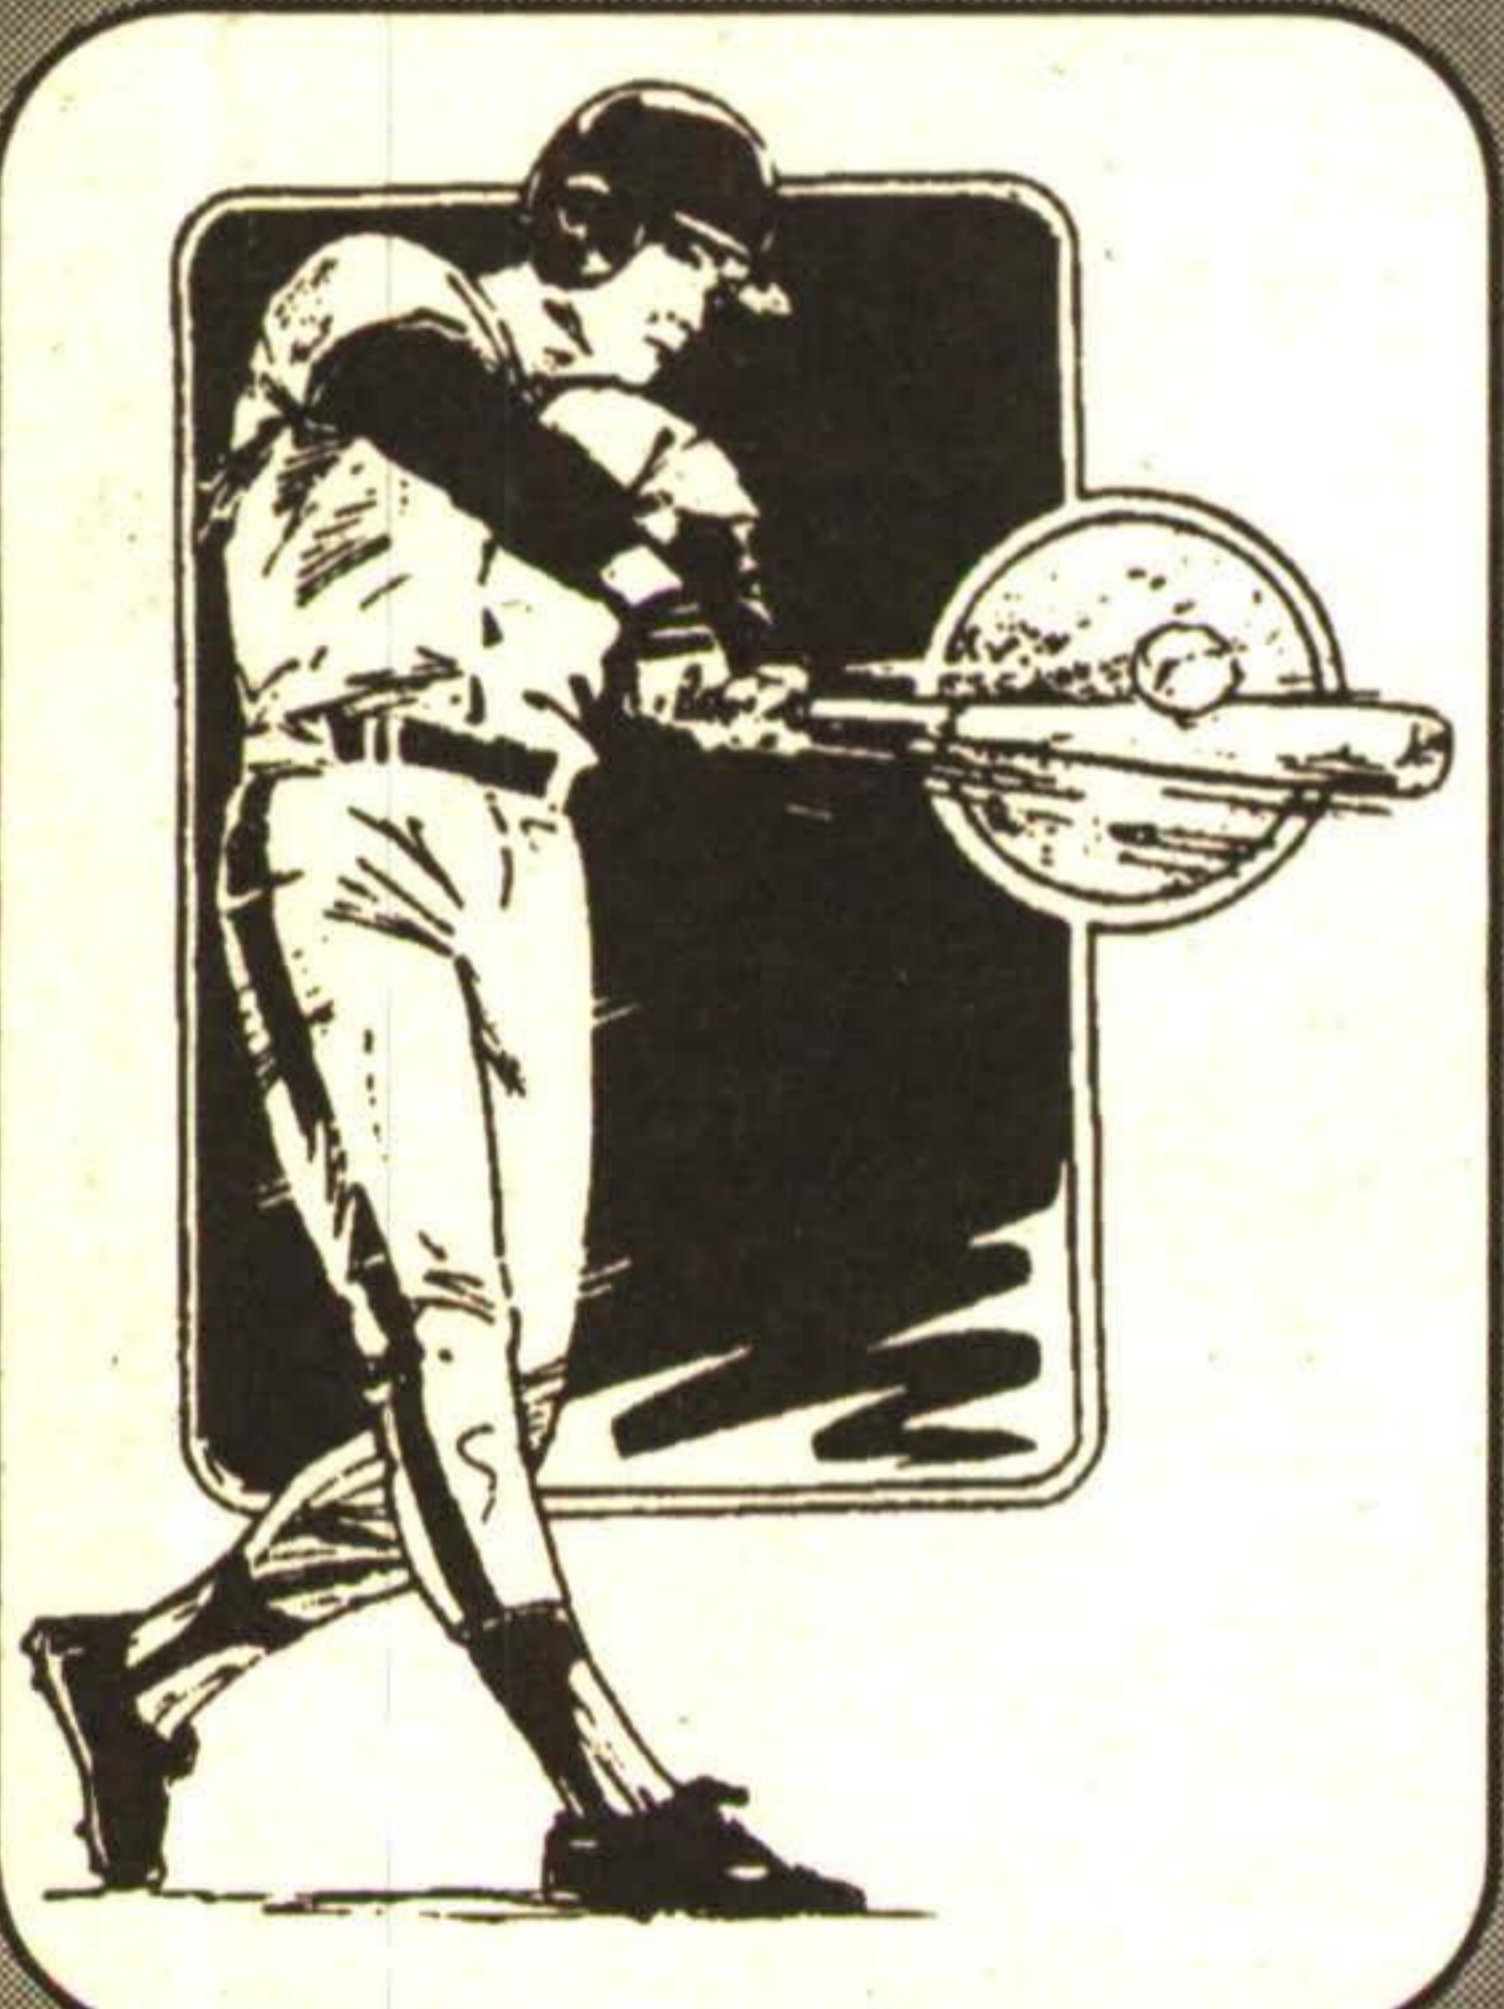

Melissa Eady hit two singles for Young's, while teammates Alicia Wilton, Mallory Harrison and Meagan Rowney turned in strong defense.

Standard Products 19,
M&M Pro Sports 11

Standard Products got home runs and fine defense from game stars Larissa Farley and Amy Garbutt in this win.

M&M's young team improves each week and this week they got big contributions from game star Nicole Bursey. Hannah Jacobs and Sara Scuralli each scored twice.
