

Man apprehended

At about noon Tuesday, Halton police apprehended a 19-year-old Georgetown man under the Mental Health Act and took him to the psychiatric unit at Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital. Police say at about 11:20 a.m. a young man attempted to get into several houses on Dawson Cr. by banging on doors and windows. The man fled the area and ended up in the Georgetown Marketplace parking lot in front of Loblaws according to police. Police say the man accosted several people in the lot and assaulted at least one Georgetown woman. The woman received minor injuries. Police arrived and the man was apprehended. The investigation is continuing.

Goods, cash stolen

About $220 worth of confectionery items and cash were taken from a stock room at Georgetown District High School sometime between last Friday and Monday. Police say it is unknown how entry was gained into the school and someone could have possibly remained in it after it was closed Friday. A lock on the stock room had been forced open.
