

Easter Procession of the Cross: Walk - Pray - Eat

By: Dawn Grimmer

It's that time of year again for congregants of our local churches to participate in the Easter Procession of the Cross.

Organized by the Acton Ministerial Association, this ecumenical walking event is open to everyone.

The procession starts at Churchill Community Church at 5:30 p.m.

on Good Friday with the cross being carried from church to church through town. Each church erects a white cross and the crowd gathers at each one to hear a reading and pray together. People can join in at any point in the walk or meet up at any one of the churches on the route. "There's usually about 60 people that participate and it's available to people from all of the churches in Acton," says Reverend Brian Galligan, Rector of St. Alban's Anglican Church.

The last church on the circuit is St. Alban's and the crowd can gather there for a community service at 7 p.m. Following the service hot cross buns and refreshments are provided for everyone.
