Acton Optical celebrates 10 Years

By: Dawn Brown

Optician and owner of Acton Optical, Nancy Wilkes, hosted a fun-filled anniversary event to celebrate 10 years in business on Thursday, June 25 outside her 80 Mill Street East location.

With barbequed burgers and hotdogs, a popcorn machine, a prize wheel and face painting for the kids, to name just a few of the activities going on, Wilkes hoped to show her appreciation and to say thank you to the community for allowing her to stay in business these past ten years.

"Without them," Wilkes said. "We wouldn't be here."

Mayor Rick Bonnette also presented Wilkes with a congratulatory letter in honor of her 10 years.

In business as an optician since 1982, Wilkes chose Acton to open her optical store for the opportunity to work where she lived; stating that working within this "fabulous" community is what she has enjoyed most over the past 10 years.

While staying afloat in the early years was most challenging, since then she couldn't think of anything else that had proved a challenge.

"It's all been fun," Wilkes said.

Wilkes was uncertain how many people would be attending the celebration when all was said and done, but was pleased she'd opted to buy the extra burgers and dogs.

"The turnout has been better than I anticipated," she said. "I'm thrilled."
