Terror and excitement in store at Acton High's Freakshow

By: Emily Humber

Do you consider yourself to be fearless? Are you under the impression that you've seen it all, and nothing scares you anymore?

Well, we want to challenge that: Come visit the AHS Freakshow, Acton High School's annual haunted house, on October 29 from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. and see how brave you really are.

Our insane asylum turned funhouse is guaranteed to thrill even the most seasoned adrenaline junkies, and the price of admission for this night of terror is a mere $2 or two non-perishable food items. Profits go to Acton Me-to-We and the Acton Food Share.

Come experience the lost souls and insanity that is typical of high school in a chilling, terrifying environment, and prepare to be scared.

A big thank you goes out to Home Hardware for donating flashlights — after you see what they are used for, you'll be thanking them too.

Note: strobe lights, fog machines, and loud noises are all part of the haunted house experience and it is not suitable for young children.
