Acton Chargers take the Pee wee Select home opener

The Acton Chargers Jescan Power Pee wee Select team had their home opener game on Sunday, November 8 against the Caledon Hawks - Pee wee MD.

The Acton Chargers came out strong with a quick goal in the first period by Braedan Lazenby, assisted by Brandon Schupp. Caledon responded with two goals in the second period.

Curtis King's natural hat trick made it 4-2 for the home side with assists going to Ryan Gordan (2), Jonah Mac-Donald (3) and Kyle Dafeo. William West's late goal with an assist to Curtis Hopkins gave the Acton Chargers the 5-2 win over Caledon.

Amazing teamwork by all and great goaltending by Elijah MacDonald. Great start to the season.
