Concussion Passport to Safe Play

Where every patient is treated like an elite athlete

We are here to keep our athletes active into their adult years and can offer you:

- Player and Coach Education
- Preseason Baseline Testing
- Balance Assessment
- Sports Medicine Consultation
- Cognitive and ImPACT testing
- Return to Play Protocols
- Follow Up and Collaborative Medical Evaluation
- Step by Step Medical Guidance

When you need concussion assessment and follow up treatment, you can be reassured that our Concussion Passport Guidelines are medically endorsed and follow the International Zurich Concussion Guidelines.

We are here to treat every patient like an athlete, but FIRST they have to be medically assessed and treated as a patient and more importantly your child.

GLT listens to its audience with its latest play, Murder Inn

By Gary McClravey
Special to The IFP

At many Georgetown Little Theatre performances, audience members are asked to complete a short survey on how well they liked the show, as well as what types of plays they would like to see the group perform in the future.

Last year, the most common audience request was for a murder mystery. So GLT listened and now, just for you, it presents Howard Voland and Keith McGregor's comic thriller— Murder Inn, Feb. 12-14 & 17-20 at the John Elliott Theatre.

The Ghosts and Ghouls Tour of New England is forced to make an unscheduled stop at the dilapidated 18th century Barnsley Inn, said to be haunted by Marco, a knife-throwing poltergeist. The Inn's proprietor refuses to accommodate the tour, but her son has allowed the party to come in out of the raging storm.

This uncomfortable detour turns into a night of mayhem as knives begin to pop up, bodies start to drop and the raging storm forces the tour's two retired heroines, Grace and Doris, to try to solve the "murder" in a style worthy of Miss Marple herself. This play will grab your attention from beginning to end. As the storm worsens and the lights go off, fear begins to take hold. There is no escape. Will the body count rise?
