

Longtime Williams Mill artist offers life drawing sessions for artists

The Tenaglia School of Art and Portfolio Building is running life-drawing sessions, both with and without instruction, in two different date packages: Four Mondays, April 4-25, and four Thursdays, April 7-28. All sessions run from 7-10 p.m.

Sessions take place at the Williams Mill Visual Arts Centre with a variety of professional models, and are open to artists from basic to advanced skill levels. Instructional sessions are $35 per three-hour class, or non-instructional at $18. Please contact folio building program her specialty, helping high school students who are planning to apply to a university or college design, architecture or visual arts program. Some have even won scholarships.

Tenaglia at sheri@sheritenaglia.com, or call 905-873-3220.

Other adult and teen students have enjoyed successes that range from being able to sell work and get commissions, to just enjoying the process of becoming better artists.

As a fine artist Tenaglia has successfully explored several mediums including encaustic and mixed media, but is most recognized as a master of pastel. Visit www.sheritenaglia.com for more information.
