

Police search for couple after $1,100 theft at Toronto Premium Outlets

Halton Regional Police have issued descriptions of a couple with an infant suspected in the theft of $1,100 from a shopper earlier this month at Toronto Premium Outlets on Steeles Ave. in Halton Hills.

Descriptions and images of a couple seen in The Gap at Toronto Premium Outlets have been released by Halton Police in connection with the theft of $1,100 in merchandise from a shopper who had left already-purchased items unattended in the store.

Police this week released still frames of video surveillance footage from The Gap store from Wednesday, Feb. 3.

A customer had set some shopping bags down from another store in order to browse through a clothing rack when the suspects strategically parked their stroller beside the unattended bags, police said, before the male discreetly inspected the contents of the bags.

The man then picked up the bags and exited the store.

The suspects are described as a brown male in his mid-30s with a beard, wearing a green jacket with a fur collar, dark pants and a dark baseball cap and the female is also believed to be in her mid-30s with dark hair tied in a bun, wearing a black jacket with a fur collar, black leggings and brown fur-lined boots.

IMPAIRED CHARGE LAID AFTER A VEHICLE CRASHES INTO HYDRO POLE

A 22-year-old man from Mississauga is facing impaired driving charges after a vehicle crashed into a hydro pole Saturday morning in Halton Hills.

Halton Regional Police responded to a call from Ontstar just before 5 a.m. on Feb. 13 on Tenth Line, south of Clayhill Rd. for a 2016 Chevy Malibu facing south in the western ditch with all four side airbags deployed.

The driver had suffered cuts to his head and hand, and while co-operative with police, officers detected an odour of alcohol on his breath.

The suspect's eyes were reported to be bloodshot and glassy and his speech was slurred. A brown paper LCBO bag with empty cans of beer was observed on the floor behind the front passenger seat, Halton Police said.

After being transported to Georgetown Hospital by Halton EMS for treatment, the man was asked to provide a breath sample by police. Despite being shown numerous times on how to provide a breath sample, the report stated that it became obvious that the accused was purposely not providing a sample before finally verbally refusing to take the test, Halton Police reported.

Charged with impaired operation of a motor vehicle and refusal to provide a breath sample is Ehtesham Mehboob Quereshi.
