Paula Behling, employee at the Starlight Café in Acton, was awarded the Express Employment Professionals Employee of the Quarter award by the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce. Chamber board members surprised Behling at her work place to present her with the third quarter of 2015 award on Wednesday, September 30.

When asked if she was surprised by the win, Behling said, "Yeah, I didn't know what was happening."

The Employee Recognition Award is presented quarterly to individuals who "deserve recognition for a job well done." Nominations for the employee of the quarter can come from employers or members of the community. The winners are selected based on the merits from the nominations and selected by the Chamber's membership services.

Board member Dana Burdenuk explained that while the award is available to employees throughout Halton Hills, it tends to be presented more often in Georgetown due to demographics.

"This is a great recognition of Acton," Burdenuk said of Behling's win.

The Starlight Café is owned by Chris Yeatman, and has been family owned and operated since 2002.
