

HILLSVIEW REPORT

By: Julie Conroy

Mary tells me that 33 people enjoyed playing Bingo on Saturday, September 26. The next game will be on October 24 with the game starting at 7 p.m.

31 people including Willie the Tyler bus driver and his wife enjoyed the visit to Elora Raceway on Monday, September 28, for the last week of the races.

Many of our members were prize winners at the Acton Fall Fair. A sample of the excellent work is a picture of a pig painted by Rita Ladjansky and displayed in the Health and Wellness room together with other paintings created by members. The art class meets on Wednesday afternoons to paint and encourage each other. I understand we were well represented in the Paper Tole and baking also.

40 people attended the presentation on the planned trip to Newfoundland on Tuesday, September 29. Pat and Bev Jones gave a very informative slide show featuring some of the photos they had taken when on the "Seniors Tours" trip several years ago. They had lots of valuable information regarding the trip. We are hoping to go in late June 2016. Following the slide show and information everyone enjoyed sampling some of the "Newfi" treats that my daughter in law Trudy brought home for us after visiting her birthplace a couple of weeks ago.

The Tuesday evening book club meeting was well attended and the next Tuesday evening program on October 13 will be games night.

Every Wednesday afternoon from 1 – 3 p.m. there will be a Seniors Connector volunteer here who is educated and trained to help you with any questions you may have such as housing options, information about the Community Care Access Centre, how to get help in your home, volunteer opportunities, long term care and retirement living, renewing your Drivers licence at the age of 80 and much more. Please drop in with any questions you may have.

Our first monthly draw took place on September 31 and Mary Robertson was the lucky winner of a beautiful silver necklace and earrings. The next draw will be for a Swarovski Austrian crystal seal. It will be drawn on October 30. It comes with a presentation box and would make a delightful gift for someone special.

Thinking of gifts, our penny table is now set up so you can try your luck at winning one of the lovely prizes. They will be drawn at our Christmas Fair on November 21.

The winner of the monthly birthday draw for a free pedicure at the Downtown Spa in Georgetown was Michel Massicotte.

The flu clinic will be held on Tuesday, October 20 from 1 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Lunch on Friday, October 16 will be celebrating Thanksgiving with a turkey lunch.

There was not winner this week for the weekly 50/50 so next week it should be around $160.

Summer reading book club winner announced

READING WINNERS: TD Canada Trust Branch Manager Pinki Dhanju, and winners Meagan Nattress, Gurvin Panu, Kailin Porty, Varyn Shoemaker, Jackson Vallance and Kara Wager. - Dawn Brown photo

TD Canada Trust Acton branch manager, Pinki Dhanju, was at the Acton branch of the Halton Hills Library on Thursday, October 1 to present to the winners of this year's Summer Reading Book Club.

Young readers who sign up for the program receive a ballot every seven days after they complete their book. That ballot is then entered into a draw to win $25 sponsored by TD Canada Trust.

The winners were presented with a certificate and when they open their new account at TD Canada Trust in Acton, $25 will be deposited into said account.

Studies show that students who read over the summer months maintain or increase their reading level by the start of the next school year. This year 288 kids signed for the Summer Reading Book Club in Acton.
