COMMUNITY
Georgetown's Active Living Centre has plenty of gamers

By Florence Riehl
Hillsview Active Living Centre-Georgetown

On Monday and Friday mornings, about 8:30 a.m., the carpet bowlers go into action. For those who are not familiar with the game it is much like lawn bowling. It sounds to me like they have a load of fun. Some of you may be missing these good times, if you are not taking part. Don't fret if you don't know how to carpet bowl. You will get lots of help from the members.

Thursday afternoons at 1 p.m. the cribbage players get together for a couple of hours to play. They are looking to increase their number of participants and invite you to come out and try your hand at this game. Perhaps it is time for you to take up a new card game. We are never too old to learn something new.

Our Island Celebration is coming up on Wednesday, March 2 at 3 p.m. We will be whisked away to warm, sunny Barbados as we sit back and enjoy the music of John Pebble. This will be a treat for those of us unable to escape our Canadian winter. Light refreshments will be served. You are asked to sign up at Reception, if you are attending this event sponsored by Martindale Gardens of Milton.

A new activity has been introduced to our Centre by one of our very new members, Alwyn Mitchell. If you have ever wanted to try your hand at drumming this is your chance. Drop in on Friday morning at 10 a.m. No experience or equipment necessary. You may be surprised at what you can use as a drum! It is all for fun.

Still room to sign up for the St. Patrick's Dance on Friday, March 11, 7-10 p.m. Your cost is $5 member and non-members $7.

Travel: Still lots of room to sign up for the Mamma Mia trip to Dunfield Theatre in Cambridge. Our day starts off with a stop at the Cambridge Butterfly Conservatory, your opportunity to see some beautiful butterflies as they fly freely about. Following this we are having lunch at the Cambridge Mill. Then we are off to the Theatre to see Mamma Mia and once more hear the beautiful sounds of Abba.

Come out and enjoy life at the Hillsview Active Living Centre in Georgetown.
