McGibbon redevelopment public meeting rescheduled

Due Tuesday's snowstorm, the special council meeting dealing with the McGibbon property redevelopment was rescheduled.

The agenda for the Special Council meeting is the proposed McGibbon Property redevelopment. We know there is a great deal of public interest in this issue and to ensure everyone who wishes to delegate or attend can do so, we will reschedule the meeting. We anticipate the meeting will be rescheduled for the first week of April. This deferral balances the need for community consultation with public safety, said Mayor Rick Bonnette, in a press release issued Tuesday morning.

The Town-hosted public meeting concerned Silvercreek Commercial Builders proposal to redevelop the McGibbon Hotel site into a 125-unit, 12-storey condominium, housed in a glass structure that will take an anticipated two years to build, if the Town of Halton Hills approves the application.
