

Kay d Entremont named Georgetown Lions 2015 Citizen of the Year

The Georgetown Lions Club is pleased to announce that Kay d Entremont has been named Georgetown Citizen of the Year for 2015.

The award has been given out annually since 1972 to recognize the contributions of volunteers who contribute to making Georgetown such a great community.

D Entremont and her family moved to Georgetown in 1964 when her now late husband was transferred to manage the Beaver Lumber, later they opened their own business, Buy Wise Windows and Doors which now is operated by her son Dave.

d Entremont was the secretary at George Kennedy and St. Francis of Assisi schools and she worked for Irwin Dorsey Publishing as well as Buy Wise Windows and Doors. She did all this while raising five children three boys and two girls. Kay now has 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

d Entremont has a long record of volunteering and being involved in the community. She is a member of the Catholic Women's League, where she just received her 60-year pin. She was an active member with the Georgetown Cubs and Scouts in the 1960s and 1970s. An enthusiastic member of the Georgetown Little Theatre (GLT) for the past 19 years, d Entremont works behind the scenes to bring the plays to the stage, as well as organizing GLT's gala parties. For 14 years she has been one of the leaders for the Youth Company at GLT, which includes attending Saturday workshop to supervise youth, helping with the Canada Day in the Glen and GLT Youth Company face painting tent on that day. In 2011, she received an Arts Alive Awards Honourable Mention.

D Entremont was involved with the Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills for 10 years, including as a Team Captain for April door-to-door canvassing in its April campaign. Kay also bakes cookies and squares for the families of cancer patients. She organizes the annual Victorian Tea and has helped raise over $30,000 for Weekend to End Women's Cancers benefiting Princess Margaret Hospital. d Entremont has participated in the civic process by serving on the election campaign committees of David Kentner and Mark Rowe.

All this and more she does in a quiet, unassuming way. When contacted by the Lions Club, d Entremont said, I don't think I have done that much.

The selection committee didn't agree. d Entremont has been a community volunteer since the day she arrived and she is very worthy to be honoured as the Citizen of the Year.

d Entremont will receive the Citizen of the Year Award at the awards dinner to be held March 29 at the Georgetown Lions Club Hall. For ticket information please contact Lion Doug Penrice at 905-873-8469.

The Georgetown Lions Club was formed in 1931 and this year is celebrating its 85th anniversary in May.

Kay d Entremont will be the recipient of the Georgetown Lions 2015 Citizen of the Year Award for her 50-plus years of volunteering in the community.
