charlenepeace@royallepage.ca

Since 2008 Charlene and her family call Georgetown home. Born and raised in Toronto, lived in Brampton for 12 years, Charlene and her husband wanted to find a place to raise their children in a great community where kids can be kids! Her career started off working for Loblaw's in the finance department and then moved on to the airline industry as a Flight Attendant. Her passion for helping people, years of customer service and interest in the real estate market made the decision to become a sales representative a natural fit. Living in a wonderful community and matching the right home for her clients is not only a commitment it's a passion. She is excited and looks forward to helping you in your quest to find a home.
