Local model seeks sponsors for upcoming modeling convention

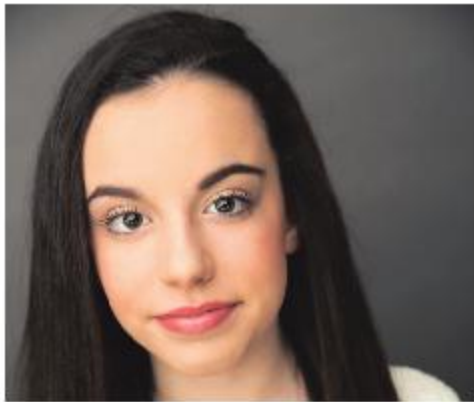

Georgetown model Samantha Michel will be having an experience of a lifetime later this spring, but needs Halton Hills help to get her there.

It is my dream that one day be on a cover page of a magazine and become an actress, said Michel, who formerly attended Ecole Sacre-Coeur, and now attends Ecole Secondaire Jeunes sans Frontieres in Brampton.

Michel, 13, who has been modeling for four years, with Carolyn's Model Agency, won a place at the 24th annual Canadian Model & Talent Conventions.

I was very lucky to be have been chosen, because out of all of Canada, only 375 were chosen, said Michel. On May 5-8, I will have the opportunity to meet over 50 of the world's top modeling and talent agents, scouts, managers, and casting directors, from markets such as New York, Los Angeles, Paris, Milan, London, Tokyo, Montreal and Toronto.

CMTC offers Michel performance and educational opportunity through four days of attending workshops and seminars, as well as participating in many competitions to showcase her skills and learn from the top industry professionals.

This is a dream of mine and I need donations or a sponsor, said Michel. One hundred per cent of your donations will help me achieve this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! With a minimum sponsorship your name or business name will be published in the official CMTC Program Book!

Income tax receipts will be issued.

Visit CMTC's website, www.cmtc.ca for success stories, FAQs and much more.
